THIS PLAN MIGHT BE DROPPED

I note that the Manager has made an order for Dungarvan Urban Council finalising, subject to the sanction of the Minister for Local Government, the acquisition of a plot of land described on a site map of the place as "Plot No. 5" at Land's End, Abbeyside, which will be used to provide access to the beach for the public.

I have already criticised the action of the Urban Council in agreeing to purchase this piece of land for a price (£300) which was almost equal to the price paid for the entire field out of which it is to be taken. Readers who have followed the negotiations will be familiar with the background. It was at the Council's meeting last February that the matter came to a head when after a stormy session it was decided by the casting vote of the Chairman to go ahead with the purchase.

It was disclosed at that meeting that the negotiations as to price were conducted with the owners of the property by the Chairman, Town Engineer and Town Clerk on behalf of the Urban Council. The Town Engineer, furthermore, in a separate report on the matter recommended the purchase of the plot "as he was satisfied that the price was realistic and comparable with prevailing prices." I am not too sure what this means exactly as the piece of ground was not required for house building.

The question, if the acquisition of this Plot No. 5 there are four other plots for housing in the same field more or less followed a recommendation from the Minister for Local Government to Local Authorities in general terms to ensure that adequate access to beaches for the public was maintained. At the outset I advocated that access to the beach at Land's End should be guaranteed as it led on to one of the finest bits of beach at Abbeyside the Minister's Cove. The only objection was that I thought the price charged was excessive and I have had no reason since to change this view.

The reason why I refer to the matter now again is that I have been to the Minister's Cove a few times recently and the drastic change which has taken place there now forces me to the conclusion that there is no longer any reason to guarantee a right of way to it as it no longer retains any appeal as a bathing place. And from this point of view I think the Council, even at this late stage would be better advised to withdraw from the transaction altogether.

The Cove was always a clean sandy bathing place, but now it has become muddy, dirty and almost a dump. The erosion by the sea which incidentally the Council's Vice-Chairman vehemently denied was occurring, has taken the yellow clay from the cliff side and spread it on to the beach, while bairs of rotten seaweed cover the place. As if this was not enough, the bodies of two old motor cars, red-rusted from the sea action have been dumped there. Because of this the once attractive cove has become an eyesore and can no longer be considered suitable as a bathing place.

It is therefore, I believe a complete waste of money to invest in land to preserve a right of way to a beach in which there will probably be little or no public usage for the future. On top of that, "Plot No. 5" runs round the perimeter of the field on the seafront and can hardly be correctly described as a plot at all as it is only a strip which at places narrows to a width of thirty feet. This strip will be subject to the continued erosion by the sea which down the years has been making steady inroads into the field all along its unprotected front and if it is left as it is, the strip will have entirely disappeared in the years ahead and the ratepayers money will have gone with it.

INTERESTING HEADSTONES

My recent reference to the strange headstone over a grave in the Dungarvan Parish Church cemetery was read with much interest and one reader has since told me about another interesting grave in the Old Churchyard at the rear of the Protestant Church in Dungarvan. He was unable to give me any details beyond the fact that it was known as the "Nailer's Grave," but to satisfy my curiosity I paid a visit to the graveyard.

It was with difficulty that I moved through the overgrown briars, nettles and weeds in this ill-kept last resting place of so many of the old stock of Dungarvan and I thought how careless people can be about grave yards generally.

I burrowed around through the long grass and eventually found an iron cross now much eaten by rust. The cross was encircled by another iron band to which was attached three or four nails. The replica of a spear and some other things. These, I thought, could represent the method by which Our Lord was tortured and crucified but of that I could not be sure, nor was I sure that this was in fact the "Nailer's Grave." The inscription, worked out in single iron letters, rivetted to the circle, was still decipherable and read "Eliza Toulinson, Died 1856, Aged 51 years."

It indeed this was the grave I sought, the cross must have been erected by someone engaged in the trade of hand-making nails. It is interesting to note that a place once known as Nailers Lane, where a community engaged in this trade once lived, lies close by.

As I made my way out of the old churchyard I came across a limestone slab lying flat on the ground apparently marking another grave of someone lying beneath the clay there. The stone looked fresh and clean and the inscription was quite clear and legible. It read: "All's well. In loving Memory of Edwin Joseph Dean, Son of Peter Thomas and Sarah Middleton. Dean who was wrecked off the ship Moresby on Christmas Eve, 1895, in His 19th Year." And that was another tragic story which I have already told in this column.

DROWNING TRAGEDIES

Despite all the warnings in Press, Radio and Television since the start of the summer to bathers to beware of the dangers of swimming alone or in dangerous places, the sea, rivers and lakes up and down the country have again claimed their full quota of victims, young and old.

The terrible sadness of a drowning is reflected in the following lines composed by Miss Peggie O'Mahony, 51 Lennox Street, Dublin and sent to me by her mother, Mrs. Margaret O'Mahony, Lismore. Peggie, who works in the Customs and Excise in Dublin is a member of the Legion of Mary and visits St. Saviour's Orphanage and knew young Harry McDonnell who with his brother and another boy was drowned at Rosnowlagh, Co. Donegal, while on holidays last July and to whose memory the lines were composed.

You didn't fear the cruel waves
You didn't dread their rage.
You waded out into the foam
And swam away from shore
The sun was shining bright as gold
And what was there to fear?
You were strong a swimmer bold,
And yet you died out there.
You died amidst the blue black foam,
You fought and fought against your fate
And then you sank beneath the stone.
You're happy now on distant shores
But we are left alone.
So please, please pray for us
And guide us safely home.

DANGEROUS BEND

I noted an employee of the County Council busily engaged at the corner of Mary Street, Mitchel Street, opposite the Parish Church in Dungarvan recently checking the flow of traffic. As each vehicle passed by he made a tick on a tabulated form. It was during the Tramore Race Week and as traffic on the main road to Cork is particularly heavy during that period there was no dearth of marks on the paper.

I have often been struck by what a dangerous corner this is and why the Authorities have not at least already lined the bend. Cars travelling in the Cork direction in particular are very much inclined to cut the corner while buses and heavy traffic find it very difficult to negotiate, especially when cars are parked on both sides of Mary Street and Mitchel Street close to the cross.

I would suggest that the authorities take another look at this dangerous junction. A continuous white line marking the centre of the road should be put down and cars should not be allowed to park anywhere within fifteen or twenty yards of the cross. This could help to avoid a serious collision and perhaps a loss of life.

GENERAL MUNROE

Here are the words of a very fine but rather lesser known ballad about the United Irish men which is our choice for the ballad corner this week.

My name is George Campbell, at the age of eighteen
I joined the United men to strive for the green
And many a battle I did undergo
With that hero commander, brave General Munroe

Have you heard of the Battle of Ballinahinch
Where the people oppressed, rose up in defence?
And they fought for twelve hours and never did yield

Munroe being tired and in want of a sleep,
Gave a woman ten guineas his secret to keep,
But when she got the money, she deed tempted her so
That she went for the soldiers and surrendered Munroe

The army they came and surrounded the place
And they took him to Lisburn and lodged him in jail
And his father and his mother in passing that way
Heard the very last words that their dear son did say!

"Oh, I die for my country as I fought for her cause,
And I don't fear your soldiers nor yet heed your laws.
And let every true man who hates Ireland's foe
Fight bravely for freedom like Henry Munroe."

And 'twas early one morning when the sun was still low
They murdered our hero brave Colonel Munroe.
And high over the Courthouse stuck his head on a spear,
For to make all United men tremble and fear.

All ye good men who listen, just think of the tale
Of the brave men who died in the year Ninety-eight,
For poor old Ireland would be free long ago
If her sons were all rebels like Henry Munroe.

COUNCILLORS CROSS SWORDS ON SECTION 4 MOTION

Heated Exchanges At U.D.C. Meeting

There was a great amount of heat generated at last Friday nights' meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council in the course of a discussion on a motion brought under Section 4 of the County and City Management Act. The motion proposed by Mr. T. Lee, seconded by Mr. P. Whelan and countersigned by Mr. T. Lannen (who was not present) read: "That having examined the application for Council houses before us and having regard to the provisions of the Housing Regulations and the report of the Chief Medical Officer, we direct the County Manager in accordance with Section 4 of the County and City Management Act to allocate Mrs. McGrath, now a boiler at No. 4 Cathal Brugha Street as tenant of the house at 21 Cathal Brugha Street which is at present vacant.

Mr. Lee who moved the motion said that the reason he did so was that because they had no house of their own the woman had to live apart from her husband and he thought that was most unfair in the sight of God. "We should try to give her this house" he said. "It is a very unfair thing that they should be living away from each other. I am sorry for putting in the motion but my conscience has been picking me about this matter."

Mr. Whelan seconding said that the reasons given by Mr. Lee were also why he signed the motion. Only for the circumstances being so he would not have signed it.

Mr. T. Kyne, Chairman, said he would propose an amendment because the Council had unanimously agreed when a meeting Section 4 motion came before them previously on a similar matter not to proceed in this way for the future. The Manager had assured them that in any special cases referred to him he would examine the position and make a special report and he moved that the matter be referred to the Manager for a report to see if Mrs. McGrath was entitled to a higher place on the housing list than she at present held.

Mr. R. Walsh seconded the amendment and said that he was going to kick up about the motion because he believed he had said previously that this was a misuse of Section 4 and was illegal. "Either we have a priority list or we don't," he said "and I think that after the resolution passed at our last meeting not to proceed this way for the future the action of the three men who have signed this motion is a classical example of running with the hare and hunting with the hounds."

Mr. Kyne said that if such a man's was passed it would simply mean that anyone who wanted to get a house in future would only have to live apart from his wife.

Mr. Lee then in a heated outburst shouted "people from outside the Buro" got new houses but the people living in the town can't get a house at all. Ye all have favourites in ye're own."

Turning to the Chairman he then said "In the next election you go for I will fix you."

Mr. Kyne That's your privilege!

Mr. Lee I fixed them before and I'll do it in your case again. I like justice and fair play, but there's none here for the people of the Town only for those coming into it.

On a vote the motion was declared lost by three to two and the amendment was carried on a similar vote. Mr. Kyne, Mr. Walsh and Mr. K. Hackett voted against the motion and Messrs. Lee and Whelan for.

SEEKING HOUSES

Mr P. Cuddihy came before the meeting seeking the tenancy of No 21 Cathal Brugha Street or any Council house and described his family position. The family had been split up for the past four years because they had no house, he said.

Mr. Thomas Mulcahy, 34 Congress Villas, who was before the previous meeting also came again on a similar mission.

Mr. Lee said that it was a terrible thing that they had no houses for all these people from the town but were able to give the new houses to people who came in from the country.

The Town Clerk, Mr. P. Doyle read the report of the C.M.O. which recommended that Thomas Mulchay be No. 1 on the list.

Mr. Kyne then moved and Mr. Walsh seconded that the C.M.O.'s report be carried out and this was approved.

OVERDRAFT

Overdraft accommodation to the extent of £20,000 for the quarter ending December 31, was approved.

INCREASE FOR TYPIST

It was agreed with Mr. Lee dissenting to increase the salary of Miss E. Hayes, Typist in the Town Clerk's office by approximately £2 per week from £13 to £15. The increase to be effective as from April 1 1965 and exclusive of whatever additional increases would be granted in the fourth round.

Mr. Lee opposing the increase said that all these salaries were going up and the misfortunate workmen were crucified with rates trying to pay for them.

The proposal to grant the increase was moved by Mr. Kyne and seconded by Mr. Whelan.

FINE GAEL REPEATS DEMAND FOR A PUBLIC INQUIRY

Fine Gael Headquarters, Dublin have issued the following statement:

C.I.E. is wholly financed by public money for the exclusive purpose of providing a key service to the public. When such service is not being provided, the public is entitled to a clear and full explanation as to why not. A fair and objective explanation and recommendations to improve the situation in the future can only come from an independent investigation. The all too frequent practice of having these responsible in government hearing their own professions and then granting themselves absolution is not acceptable.

The abrupt rejection by the Minister for Transport and Power of Fine Gael's call for an inquiry into the chronically unsatisfactory situation C.I.E.'s affairs is deplorable in view of current widespread public concern. The report conducted by staff of C.I.E. while containing some useful information is no substitute for an independent inquiry. In fact the report itself refers to the unsatisfactory nature of the particular type of inquiry. Now is the time to undertake an independent inquiry into the affairs of C.I.E. This public uneasiness has been building up for a considerable time but has been greatly increased by the recent bus strike.

The inland disruption is little less than a year.

What is deeply disturbing about the C.I.E. position is that over a period of years no serious effort seems to have been made to grapple with the fundamental problems of which the recent bus strike is only one symptom. Discontent and poor morale have been reflected in constant disputes. The existence of such strong discontent should have led to urgent measures by those responsible to identify and eliminate the underlying causes of this discontent. A great deal of expert help is now available in Ireland and from other countries. In particular the technique of personnel management and we are satisfied that with real determination, technique could be found and applied in C.I.E. for dealing effectively with grievances. The problem has continued for so long that there can be now no excuse for not having taken positive steps in this direction long ago.

The public has been given no evidence by the government that anything has been done or will be done to deal with these chronic ills and from the point of view of workers, dependent on the transport service very serious problems. If the Minister persists in his rejection of Fine Gael's proposal for an inquiry which would make the facts public, and which would suggest solutions then the Minister has a clear obligation to suggest an alternative which would achieve the same purpose.

BALLYDUFF/PORTLAW HAD LITTLE DIFFICULTY

Cappoquin/Tourin Offered Poor Resistance

Ballyduff/Portlaw	4 14
Cappoquin/Tourin	0 5

Ballyduff Portlaw had little difficulty in overcoming the challenge of Cappoquin/Tourin when they entered in the losers' group game at the Fraher field, Dungarvan, on Tuesday night last, where after an uninspiring and indifferent game throughout, they had scarcely one token to spare over the hosts who offered but a poor resistance throughout the entire second half.

CLOSE

Exchanges were close early on in the game with the losers making most of the running and after eleven minutes they led 0 3 to 0 2.

Then came a complete change-about as the winners began to settle down and take command. By the first minute they were two points clear 0 6 to 0 4, and when Frankie Whelan goaled direct from a seventy in the 23rd minute, the writing was on the wall for the Western combination.

LAST SCORE

Micky Fraher had a point from a free for the losers in the 26th minute and they were trailing 1 7 to 0 5 at the interval. As a matter of fact, this was the last score they registered in the game as all through the entire second half the Ballyduff Portlaw side dominated completely notching 3 7 in the process.

Only a few were present for the game which produced hurling of a low standard and offered very little in the way of entertainment.

Even though the game got under way at 7.25 p.m. daylight had almost completely vanished by the end, and it was almost impossible to tell one player from another at follow the flight of the ball.

GOOD DEFENDERS

Ballyduff Portlaw had good defenders in Willie Power, Frankie Whelan, John O'Donnell and P. Stone. Jackie Whelan and John Kirwan dominated at midfield, while Tom Cheasty, Seamus Beresford, Joe Power and Liam Burke, all starred in attack.

Ollie Wilkinson, Jimmy Gorman, Andy O'Keeffe and Tom Landers, tried hard in defence for the losers. Tom Regan was the most impressive of the centrefield pair, while in attack Bernie Scanlan, Billie Arrigan and Micky Fraher were best.

Scorers Ballyduff Portlaw: T. Burke (1-2), M. Hanrahan (1-0), S. Beresford (1-1), P. Whelan (1-0); T. Cheasty (0-4); J. Power (0-3); F. Cullinane (0-3); S. Hanrahan and J. Whelan (0-1 each).

Cappoquin Tourin: J. Rourke, P. Mordesey, G. Mason, T. Regan and M. Fraher (0-1 each).

Ballyduff/Portlaw: N. Sullivan; P. Walsh, W. Power, K. Maher; F. Whelan, J. O'Donnell, P. Stone; J. Whelan, J. Kirwan, J. Power, T. Cheasty, S. Beresford, P. Hanrahan, L. Burke, M. Hanrahan. Sub. F. Cullinane for F. Whelan.

Cappoquin/Tourin: F. McGrath; J. Gorman, O. Wilkinson, J. Arrigan; A. O'Keeffe, T. Lonergan, T. Landers; T. Regan, G. Mason, B. Scanlon, B. Arrigan, E. Fraher, M. Fraher, J. Rourke, P. Mordessey. Sub. P. Quinn for J. Rourke. M. Rourke for T. Lonergan.

No Games Listed For The West On Sunday

Co. Board Meet On Monday Night

By Commentator

With no games in the West on Sunday, we turn to Cork and Kilkenny to provide us with an afternoon of entertainment when they meet in the All-Ireland senior hurling final in Croke Park. The game is television and this will allow those of us who remain at home to see the game which by now has aroused more than usual interest in this county. Most people in the county favour Cork, and I was surprised to hear so many hurling men throughout the county express the wish that the Munster Champions and our compatriots in the final take the title which they last won eleven years ago.

Much as I would like to see Cork win, I doubt very much if they will be good enough to do so that is unless they have improved a lot since the Munster final, and on my reckoning Kilkenny will win the game by a decisive score.

* * * * *

JUNIOR HURLING GAME

According to the Western Board's fixtures for the day game listed for the weekend is the junior hurling second round match between Abbeyside and Ardmore which is set to be played at the Fraher field on tomorrow (Friday) night.

Ardmore, following their great win over Tourin on Sunday night last will be anxious to follow up this with a victory for their second string, but I think it would be a surprise bigger than anything that they have produced before. If they beat this Abbeyside team which is composed of the greater part of their under 21 championship team. The winners will meet Colligan in the semi-final.

* * * *

CO. BOARD MEETING

The County Board will meet at Dungarvan on Monday night next, that is one week earlier than usual, and this was decided upon at the last meeting in order to ensure that all the vacant September dates could be filled up. As things stand at the moment there is only one senior fixture standing and that is the meeting between Ballyduff and Fraher, Fourmarty in the quarter final of the S.H. Championship, so it may not be too much of a problem for the Board to make fixtures up to the final stages.

DUNGARVAN ARE CHAMPIONS

In one of the best and certainly one of the most exciting juvenile hurling finals seen since the inauguration of this competition, Dungarvan won their third title at Cappoquin on Thursday night last when they beat Tallow in a game that certainly must have compensated supporters for some of the very poor fare produced in one of the earlier rounds. This was a game that reached our juvenile hurling at its very best and one that deserved a much bigger attendance. Dungarvan were first to take the lead but Tallow hurling better in the first half when facing the sun were in front 1 3 to 0 5 at half time. In the opening few minutes of the second half Dungarvan drew level and then went five points in front, but Tallow were by no means finished and in a magnificent hurling comeback they nearly managed to pull down the lead and Dungarvan equally determined to hold on and hold on to their title, defended courageously and on the call of time they had four points to spare 2 11 was the final score and Tallow side should have lost. After the game when the St. Declan's Shield was presented to Connie Murphy, the winning captain, Tom Cunningham said that this was Dungarvan's best game in juvenile since they entered the championship and this surely was a compliment to the losers as well as to the winners. This, I thought was a better game than the final of last year when the same teams were involved. Dungarvan now meet Ferrybank in the final as they did last year and this game will be played at Dungarvan on a date to be arranged on Monday night next.

JUVENILE FOOTBALL

The juvenile football final now remains as the only game to be played in the underage championships and all going well this match will take place on Friday night at Cappoquin. The teams are Tallow and Stradbally and who cannot say that it is not a unique pairing since the Biddists come from the extreme ends of the division being Dairy mines apart. Tallow who had already reached the final in juvenile hurling and minor football and played in what can now be regarded as the western minor hurling final, had their tough job as twice qualified for the semi-final they had to endure three hours of football against Ballyduff Portlaw before qualifying by the narrowest of margins to meet Stradbally who got through after only two games against Ardmore and Abbeyside. The best game that I saw then this year was Tallow's clash against Ardmore and I thought that on the form shown in this game I could give Stradbally an equal chance of getting through to the county final. The county final in this championship will also be fixed on Monday night.

* * * *

UNDER 21 FINAL

Now that De La Salle have qualified as Eastern champions in the under 21 hurling competition, the pairing in the county final are known as Abbeyside had already won out of the west. The final can be in the new championship will be played at Dungarvan next month and by all accounts it is going to be a cracker as both sides are certain to make tremendous bid to have their names first on the record book.

* * * *

GROUP TEAM OUT

When Ballyduff Portlaw defeated Tourin Cappoquin group team in the semi final of the losers group at Dungarvan on Tuesday night, four of the five group teams which entered this year had gone out. The only group team now remaining is the senior hurling championship is the Ballyduff, Shamrocks and Fallow partnership, which operates under the nom de plume' Ier Dheise and they will have their next outing when they meet Mount Sion in the semi final.

A look at the other end of the S.H. championship shows that Abbeyside will meet Ballygunner and the winners will play Erin's Own or the winners of the Fraser's group.

SENIOR FOOTBALL

In senior football the position is somewhat better, with only five teams now remaining, Kilrossanty and Emmets are through to the semi-final in the lower end of the draw and in the upper end Kill are through to meet either Ballinacourty or Mitchels in their semi-final. It looks, too, as if all the remaining four senior football games including the county final will be played at Dungarvan.

* * * *

DEPARTURE OF REFEREE

Going through the division will learn with regret that popular referee Mossie McGrath has now emigrated to take up employment in England and that he will not be available for some time to continue in his role as referee. Mossie was one of the best known knights of the whistle having efficiently handled matches in all grades for both boards and his absence, particularly for the Western board, will create a problem.

* * * *

LAST SUNDAY

Any ideas we had about Kill not being a good football team were well and truly dispersed on Sunday last when they played Brickeys into the ground in a game that aroused no enthusiasm and was well decided long before the finish. As a match it was a flop and like many of the huge crowd which turned up to see the Brickeys expected to see the champions in the first round, could have so completely lost their form and given what will be remembered as one of their worst displays. The Brickeys were short four of their regulars and this resulted in a rearrangement of the team that proved wholly unsatisfactory.

Kill showed themselves to be a very fit team and displayed wonderful teamwork that is not likely to be matched by many of the sides remaining.

The second game was close and the issue between Kilmacanoge and Stradbally remained open almost to the end, but again this was a disappointing game and the standard of football never reached the expected heights. But I would say too much close marking and too much tension on the field. Kilrossanty had the stronger defence and were much steadier under pressure and this was what won them the game which cannot have enhanced their championship prospects.

Sunday night's game between Ardmore and Tourin in the end-final of the intermediate hurling championships turned out unexpectedly to be another disappointment and a good while before the end this game too was well decided. Here it was a case of Tourin being unable to adjust themselves to Ardmore's style of hurling which was more than a little different from the type played by the regular intermediate teams which Tourin have been doing down through the years.

Ardmore, after a rather shaky start played confident hurling and lived up to the expectations of their supporters who must have ladled them as potential champions after beating Cappoquin. They now meet Shamrocks or Colligan in the Western final.

At Cappoquin on Sunday Mount Sion experienced no difficulty in beating the Group team Thomas Delse, who were never really in the game with a chance against the County champions.

At the same venue early arrivals were treated to a junior thriller when Colligan's second string just managed to say one point in front of Shamrocks in a second round game in the junior hurling championship. 4 7 to 3 9 was the score in this game.

FOUND DROWNED

The body of a 72-year old farm labourer was found drowned on the strand at Clonea last Sunday morning by an English visitor. He was Patrick Mooney, a native of Faha, Kilmacthomas, who has been working with farmers in the Clonea and Ballinacourty area for several years where he was very popularly known.

At an inquest held in Clonea last Tuesday, a verdict in accordance with the medical evidence that death was due to drowning, was returned.

MAN ATTACKED

Gardai in Dungarvan are investigating a complaint from a man from the Cappagh area that he was attacked by two men in the vicinity of Fitzgerald's Terrace, on Monday night while going to hire a car to take him home. He alleged that he was knocked to the ground, his shoes were taken off him and a book book taken from his pocket. However, he was fortunate in that a fairly large sum of money in his hip pocket was left untouched. The Guards have since found the shoes in a front garden at Fitzgerald Terrace and investigations are proceeding.

He says that his great-great-grandfather's family emigrated from Ireland in 1842 and one of his forbears was a Michael Morrissey, who was born in Dungarvan in 1827. THE TIDY TOWNS COMPETITION RESULTS

Ballyjamesduff, immortalised by Percy French's famous song "Come Back Paddy Reilly" is the overall winner of this year's Tidy Towns Competition, sponsored by Bord Failte, with 94 marks.

This year, according to the adjudicators, the performances of leading towns was good but they were disappointed by the wide gap which separated the better towns from average entrants. Litter and overgrown road margins and wrecked cars dumps provided most of the adverse comments.

"The secret of success in making a town or village look its best, says a statement by Bord Failte released with the results, is good organisation, backed by a united community. Bodies such as Muintir na Tire, T.C.A., Macra na Feirme and the local Authorities can often give lead and the success of the competition is largely due to their efforts and to the excellent support given by the Provincial and daily Press and by Radio and Television."

BEST IN AREA

Midleton (in class D, 1,500 to 3,000 population) with 82 per cent. scored the highest marks in the Waterford-East Cork area and was rated "exceptionally good. Cobh (Class A not exceeding 2000) also got a similar rating with 80 per cent. In class C (500 to 1,500) Dunmore East with 76 and Lismore with 73 were "highly commended" as was Clonmel. Class F 5,000 to 20,000) with 78.

Ardmore with 65 got a "commended" mark in Class B (200 to 500), while Dungarvan and Youghal were similarly bracketted with 67 and 65 respectively. In Class F Carrick-on-Suir with 51 marks, in Class E (3,000 to 5,000) was classified as "good" while considered "fair" were Castleiyons with 45 and Bonmahon 37 (in Class A) and Kilmacthomas 49 (Class B).

Obituary

Mr. J. Kiely

We regret to record the death of Mr. John (Jack) Kiely, Ballinaguikee, Ballinamult, which occurred rather suddenly at his residence on Monday, August 29th.

The late Mr. Kiely had been under medical care for some time but his death was nonetheless unexpected.

Member of a widely connected Ballinamult family, he had been an industrious and popular member of the farming community in the district.

He was a kind and charitable neighbour and his passing leaves a void which will be hard to fill.

Sincere sympathy is extended to his sorrowing wife and family.

His remains were removed on Tuesday evening to the Parish Church, Tourancena, followed by a cortege of very large dimensions and the coffin was received and blessed by Rev. J. Walsh, C.C. assisted by Rev. M. Flynn, O.S.A., Nigeria, Rev. J. D. Walsh, C.C., Rev. Peter & Paul's, Clonmel (nephew), and Rev. J. Kiely, O.S.A., Nigeria (nephew).

Solemn Office and High Mass was celebrated on Wednesday morning for the happy repose of his soul after which the burial took place in the adjoining cemetery. Rev. J. P. Walsh, C.C., SS. Peter & Paul's, Clonmel, was celebrant of the Mass; Rev. J. Kiely, O.S.A., Nigeria, was deacon, and Rev. W. Power, C.C. (cousin), Dungarvan, was sub-deacon. Rev. J. Griffin, C.C., was Master of Ceremonies. The Chanters were Rev. J. Bracken, C.C., Fourmilewater and Rev. M. Farrell, C.C., Kilgobinet.

In the choir were Very Rev. J. Daly, P.P., Modeligo, Very Rev. D. McGrath, P.P., Kilgobinet, Very Rev. K. Walsh, P.P., Mississippi (nephew), Rev. J. Walsh, C.C., Fourmilewater; Rev. N. Coughlan, C.C., Modeligo, Rev. M. O'Flynn, O.S.A., Nigeria, Rev. N. Sexton, O.S.A., Dungarvan, Rev. M. Flynn, O.S.A., Nigeria.

Rev. J. P. Walsh, C.C., also officiated at the graveside assisted by the full choir of clergy. A large and representative concourse were present.

Chief mourners Mrs. Mary Kiely (widow), James, Mallow, Patrick, Ballinguikee, Edmond, do., Laurence, do., John do., (sons); Mrs. Josie Cleary, Clogheen, Mrs. M. Ryan, Newtown, Ballymacarbry, Mrs. Mary Houlihan, Dungarvan, Clonmel (daughters); Laurence Kiely, Tourancena (brother); Thomas Cleary, Andrew Ryan, Thomas Houlihan (sons-in-law); Mrs. Mary Kiely, Mallow, daughter-in-law), and a large circle of nephews, nieces and grandchildren.

(Funeral arrangements were carried out by James Kiely & Sons, Undertakers, Dungarvan).

Amalgamation Of Mount Stuart And Aglish Schools

Mr. John Fahey, T.D., has received the following letter dated August 23, from the Secretary of the Minister for Education:

"In the absence on holidays of Mr. O'Malley, Minister for Education, I am to refer to your representations regarding Mount Stuart National School which was closed on 30th June, 1966.

"In this connection, I wish to say that in effecting the amalgamation of Mount Stuart and Aglish schools it was realised that Aglish N.S. was not in very good condition, but it was considered that the educational benefit which would accrue to the children of the Mount Stuart district by bringing them to the larger school immediately would outweigh this consideration.

"I might add, however, that this amalgamation is for the moment, only an interim arrangement pending further investigation of the educational facilities to be provided for the children in the Aglish parish."

KILL QUALIFY FOR SENIOR FOOTBALL SEMI-FINAL

Brickeys Most Humiliating Defeat

Kill 3—9; Brickey Rangers 0—4.

Brickey Rangers must have suffered one of the most humiliating defeats in senior football in the history of the club at the Frather Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last when before one of the largest attendances present at the venue this year they were whipped by fourteen points (3-9 to 0-4) by Kill, in a quarter final game which had little to commend it and which would be best forgotten altogether by the "Busby Park" men.

PRODUCED LITTLE

Indeed it was a game which had promised much but which produced little and looked more of a dog fight than a senior football championship clash.

The football on the whole was disappointing but no fault can be laid with the Eastern side for this as they tried to play the game as it should be played all through. They dominated the game for the entire hour and after leading 2-6 to 0-1 at the interval, really "went to town" in the second half and administered a lesson in the finer arts of the game to the losers, many of whom seemed more intent on the man rather than the ball.

FLARE UP

These tactics proved catastrophic for Brickeys as they played right into the hands of the opposition who capitalised on every misdemeanour, especially in the Brickey goal area, and they also raised a flare up around the Brickey goal two minutes after the official thirty had expired in the second half in which players from both sides attacked each other with fists.

DISASTROUS

Kill took command from the start aided by a strong breeze and had the ball in the Brickey net after only two minutes. This great moral boosting score for the winners proved disastrous for Brickeys but it should never have been scored. Martin Kennedy sent a life ball into the Brickey goalmouth and Michael Flynn half connected to send a dribbling shot goalwards. Keeper Tom Donoghue best placed to collect the ball but it slipped between his hands and legs into the back of the net.

Kill had added a further brace of points before Brickeys had their first score from Leaving in the tenth minute. Leading 1-4 to 0-1 towards the close of the first half Kill almost ensured victory with another goal by Paddy Duggan and two further minors to leave them eleven points clear (2-6 to 0-1) at the interval.

QUESTION SOLVED

The question at this stage was whether Kill's lead would be sufficient to see them through against the breeze in the second half but this question was solved seven minutes after the resumption when they broke through for their third major score.

Now the gauntlet was well and truly laid down for Brickeys. Trailing by fourteen points and even with the wind advantage their task was a gigantic, if not an impossible one. They pointed, but Kill retaliated with another minor. Brickeys had another point but Kill sent over two more. John Walsh was unlucky in the 28th minute when he had a point for Brickeys which could just as easily have been a goal, and while it would not have helped the losers in any way it would have taken the bare look off the final tally.

TOYING WITH OPPOSITION

During the second half Kill, who deservedly go into the semi-final against John Mitchels or Ballinacourty, were only toying with the opposition. Kill had outstanding defenders in Tom Kirwan, "Tucker" Guiry, Tom Mooney and Achill Lannon. Martin Kennedy and Seamus Keevans were unbreakable at midfield while Monty Guiry, Paddy Duggan, Joe Tibbs and Mick Flynn all impressed in attack.

Brickeys, who were without the services of Michael and Jim Sprath never came to life in this game from which few of their players emerged with reputations intact. John Walsh, John Woods and Killigrew were the only defenders to impress. Pat Curran tried hard at midfield but only Willie Terry and Paud Donoghue ever looked dangerous in attack.

Scorers—Kill: M. Flynn (2-0), P. Duggan (1-7), M. Guiry (0-1), M. Lenihan (0-1). Brickeys: P. Donoghue (0-2), B. Spratt (0-1), J. Walsh (0-1).

Kill: N. Whelan; M. Kirwan, T. Kirwan, T. Guiry, C. Mooney, T. Mooney, A. Lannon, S. Keevans, M. Kennedy, J. Regan, P. Duggan, M. Lenihan, M. Flynn, M. Guiry, J. Tibbs. Subs.—J. Torpey for J. Tibbs.

Brickey Rangers: T. O'Donoghue; P. Fernecombe, P. Donnelly, L. Curran; J. Walsh, J. Woods, P. J. Killigrew, P. Curran, J. Sheehan, J. Spratt, W. Terry, F. Gee; P. Donoghue, F. Hearne, B. Spratt. Sub. J. Cooney for L. Curran.

Referee: M. White (Ballymacarbry).

KILROSSANTY QUALIFY FOR SECOND SENIOR FOOTBALL SEMI

Stradbally Defeated After Close Contest

Kilrossanty ..... 0—8
Stradbally ..... 0—5

The large attendance received full value for their money from this second senior football game at Dungarvan last Sunday in which Kilrossanty after a close hard fought contest, qualified to meet Emmetts in the second semi-final of the competition by beating Stradbally 0-8 to 0-5.

GREAT APPEAL

This game held great appeal for followers of the big ball code and many who remembered former epic struggles between these traditional football parishes were looking forward to yet another titanic battle.

In this they were not disappointed. From start to finish the game was close, exchanges were tough and there was never more than a few points between the sides until Kilrossanty notched their three points winning margin in the dying minutes of the game.

EITHER WAY

This was a game which could have gone either way because up to the last quarter Stradbally were matching the Comeraghmen in almost every quarter and it was the winners greater experience and stamina which in the end decided the issue in their favour and Stradbally, with a good few minors in their line out can justly feel proud of their performance against the more mature and heavier Kilrossanty fifteen.

Stradbally with the strong wind advantage took an early lead after three minutes. A minute later the sides were level and once more in the 27th minute were all square at 0-2 each. A point in the 27th minute gave Stradbally a slender interval lead and it looked as this stage as if they would be literally annihilated in the second half.

FAILED TO TAKE ADVANTAGE

The Cowmen did seem to have missed the bus in this area of play during which they failed to take advantage of the strong breeze to build up a good sized interval lead.

With the wind behind them in the second half Kilrossanty looked odds on certainties. A great away and quickly overcome the opposition but things did not work out this way as Stradbally after losing their lead again jumped ahead with a point after five minutes. Kilrossanty levelled and went two points clear but Stradbally fought back and cut their lead to the minimum going into the last quarter. In the final three minutes Kilrossanty notched a brace of points to leave them ahead 0-8 to 0-5 at the finish.

The standard of football was poor but on the whole creditable in such poor conditions.

Sean Ormonde kept his goal intact for Kilrossanty and was ironclad by a good defence in which Matty Linnegan, Noel Walsh, Jimmineen Power and Tony Baldwin looked impressive. Tom Walsh and Michael Casey played well for the inner at midfield while Tom Riordan, Mick Pender and Pa Walsh all impressed in attack.

In goal for the losers Jim Power made some fine saves. Tom Foley, Paddy Power, Dick Grogan and Pat Clancy played well in defence. Tom Walsh was the more impressive of the midfield pair while in attack Tom Hearne, Jimmy Mansfield and Tom Cunningham (before moving to defence) were best.

Scorers — Kilrossanty: M. Casey (0-6), M. Pender (0-1), T. Riordan (0-1), Stradbally: J. Mansfield (0-2), T. Hearne (0-2), V. Power (0-1).

Kilrossanty: S. Ormonde; J. Moloney, M. Lonergan, J. Maher; T. Baldwin, N. Walsh, J. Power; T. Walsh, M. Casey, P. Walsh; T. Riordan, T. Walsh, J. Whyte, M. Pender, N. Casey.

Stradbally: J. Power; T. Guiry, T. Foley, P. Power; D. Grogan, P. Clancy, M. Barry; T. Walsh, A. Curran, V. Power; T. Hearne, M. Casey, J. Guiry, J. Mansfield, T. Cunningham. Subs.—E. Casey for M. Barry, M. Reilly for M. Casey, J. Power for V. Power.

Referee: S. Cullen (Ardmore).

I.S.B.G.A's. CONCERN AT RISING FERTILISER COSTS

The Council of The Irish Sugar Beet Growers' Association is grievously concerned and perturbed at the rising cost of the cost of fertilisers. A deputation consisting of Messrs. B. O'Neill, Chairman, John Phelan, Vice-Chairman, M. J. Corry, T.D., Chairman Mallow Board; R. Laniffe, Chairman of the Tuam Board and P. Sarsfield, Secretary, met officials of The Irish Sugar Company yesterday on this matter. They called on the Sugar Company to take all the necessary steps possible to continue to supply fertilisers at the lowest possible price and at least as cheap as last year. They informed the Company that if they were unable to do this that the Association is determined to go into the business itself and procure all the necessary requirements of its members at the lowest available cost.

The Association is strongly in favour of buying Irish and supporting Irish industry so long as the farmer gets a fair deal as its members have to sell their products abroad in competition with foreign farmers they must continue to insist on getting their raw materials to the best advantage. Up to this the beetgrowers have been the only farmers who have been able to apply 100% of the lime and fertilisers required on their land. The recent Feras Talunlais survey shows this. The Association is determined to maintain the advantage of its members in this respect.

ARDMORE QUALIFY FOR I.H. FINAL

Runaway Victory Over Tourin

Ardmore 4 11; Tourin 1 4

Ardmore qualified for the Western Intermediate Hurling final with a runaway victory over slight favourites Tourin in their semi-final clash at Dungarvan on last Sunday evening.

NOT RULED OUT

Even though a surprise result was not ruled out, Ardmore, who have created quite a few surprises in this grade this year, accounting for Fourmile water and Cappoquin, were not expected to overcome Tourin with such ease, and in such heavy rain-soaked conditions which should have been more in Tourin's favour.

SKATING RINK

Heavy rain turned the pitch into a skating rink and tackling became a hazard and with both sides favouring rough exchanges quite a few were injured, though not seriously.

Ardmore were three points up before Tourin had their first score, a point in the 22nd minute but by the interval the scores were even set with Ardmore just ahead 0-4 to 0-3.

WIDE OPEN

Ardmore went further ahead early in the second half and by the 9th minute led 1-6 to 0-3 but a Tourin goal by Tom Dooey in the 12th minute left the game wide open.

Ardmore's greater fitness came to their aid at this time as they quickly took control and hammered home their match winning scores with very little resistance from the losers.

CONSISTENTLY GOOD

They hurled consistently good over the four but really hit their stride in the final quarter and on this form will take some beating in the final. Jimmy Morrissey, Mickey Carlton and Bertie Hallahan had very good games in defence. Anthony Carlton was impressive at midfield while John Joe Carlton, Jim Rooney, Finbarr Hallahan and Eddie Mooney all starred in attack.

For the losers, Wally Dooey, Pat Quinn, Tom Landers and Willie Wilkinson all played well in defence. Jimmy Grennan was the more prominent of the midfield pair, while in attack Steve Scanlon, Bernie Scanlon and Tom Dooey worked hard.

Scorers—Ardmore: J. Rooney 0-10, E. Mooney 0-1, F. Hallahan 1-1, B. Hallahan 1-1, D. Lenane (1-0), T. Lynn, T. Dooey (1-1), B. Scanlon (0-3).

Ardmore: J. Colbert; D. O'Brien, M. Carlton, J. O'Brien; J. Morrissey, F. Carlton, B. Hallahan; D. Lenane, A. Carlton, J. J. Carlton, F. Hallahan, N. Rooney; T. Hallahan, E. Mooney, J. Rooney. Sub: T. Power for T. Hallahan.

Tourin: E. McGrath; T. Sullivan, W. Dooey, P. Quinn; T. Landers, J. Wilkinson, J. Grennan; T. Ryan, J. Gorman, T. Hickey, S. Scanlon, B. Scanlon; T. Barry, L. Sullivan, T. P. Barry. Subs.: T. Dooey for Wilkinson; J. Barry for T. Hickey, Wilkinson for F. Barry.

Referee: B. McGrath (Dungarvan).

Attractive Career For Irish Boys

Upwards of forty Irish boys will be recruited this year by Aer Lingus to train as airline pilots. This is one of the most attractive and rewarding jobs in the country and the training for it is free. The minimum educational requirement is a Leaving Certificate (Passe, the Senior Certificate (Northern Ireland) or the GCE with five passes at O level. The minimum age is 17½ years and maximum 23½ years on 31st August 1966. The upper age limit has been extended earlier for under graduates and graduates or young men who may wish to change their professions.

This large class will be divided and trained at three different centres Gormanstown Co Meath (with the Air Corps), Kidlington England and Vero Beach, Florida U.S.A. This will be the first occasion on which Irish trainee pilots have been sent to an American aviation school.

Another new feature of this year's trainee pilot enlistment is the extension of the scheme to young men with technical training such as an apprenticeship who have acquired a higher technological qualification but have not got the Leaving Certificate.

Since Aer Lingus introduced this scheme in 1961 a total of forty-one Irishmen have qualified as pilots and are now flying with the national airline. At present twenty-seven are in training.

Commenting on this year's increased entry, Mr. C. O'Broin, Aer Lingus, Employment Controller, said the response in past years for these appointments has been reasonably good but not good enough from certain rural areas of the country. "The impression may have gone abroad that we are looking for superman and, of course, nothing is further from the truth. The basic educational qualification shows the type of man we are looking for. He could be summed up as a physically fit young man who has no trouble with his examinations and has a keen desire to take on flying as a career. The introduction of the technical training qualification will, we believe, greatly extend our field of selection. The upper age limit will also cater for those many young men who may have found after a year or so that they do not want to continue their higher education courses or who may want to change their employment."

Tallow and Round About Notes

The Late Mrs. E. Crowley—The death took place at her Tallow Hill residence on August 24th of Mrs. Elizabeth Crowley. Deceased had been ill for some time. Member of a widely esteemed family she was caretaker of Tallow dispensary for a number of years and endeared herself to all by her many fine traits of character not the least of which was her never failing good humour. A joke was ever ready on her lips and her kind and obliging ways won for her the esteem and respect of all with whom she came in contact. She was relict of James Crowley, Co. Council overseer.

The late Mrs. Crowley went to the United States last year to attend the wedding of her son Michael and had contemplated another visit this year. She was a subscriber to the Leader and sent many copies overseas to members of her family.

The remains, accompanied by a large and representative cortege, were removed to the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Tallow, and were received by Very Rev. Fr. H. O'Brien, P.P., Tallow. Requiem Masses were celebrated on Thursday and Friday morning for the happy repose of her soul and the interment took place in the family plot in the adjoining cemetery on Friday afternoon in the presence of a very large attendance of relatives, friends and sympathisers. Very Rev. Fr. H. O'Brien, P.P. officiated at the graveside. We extend our deepest sympathy to her family and relatives. May her gentle soul rest in peace.

(daughters-in-law); Michael Cronin and George Thompson (sons-in-law); Sean, Michael, Eddie, Cronin, Gerald, Michael, Dan, U.S.A., Jimmie, Tony, Rosmaire, Carolina, Michael, Debbie, Louden (grandchildren); Cord in family, U.S.A., Gilledders, U.S.A., O'Haras, Aylesbury, Cushnans, Glenarm, Coughlans, Rasmens, Fallons families, Clonakilty relatives.

Tallow Horse Fair—Tallow's great annual horse fair has been described as the second biggest horse fair in the country and it is. It will be held on the Saturday, September 3rd. But this year it is a fair with a difference in that it is coming at the end of Festival Week in the town which should make it bigger and better than ever. The fair was founded in 1863 by the late Very Rev. Canon Meagher and a number of the town's leading business men including the late John Walsh, West Street, the late T. McCarthy, West Street, the late T. R. Kenny, The Square, whose grandson Mr. Ted Kenny is today secretary of Tallow Festival Committee. Since that far off day the fair has come from success to success and despite the changes seen when the horse has been largely superseded by the motor car and tractor there are never a scarcity of horses at Tallow fair. Buyers come from all over Ireland, England and the Continent. An added attraction this year is that it will be on the air. RTE coverage and there will be a parade and recital by the Holy Rosary Band Midleton at 7 p.m. and the final heats of the Festival Talent Competition with music and dancing on the Square at 9 p.m. It is the earnest hope that you will be so pleased with the entertainment, so identified with the celebrations that you will come back next year. May this festival time be for all a time of such happiness and pleasure that it will live long in your memory.

The Festival Opens—If one can judge by the attendance at the opening night of the Festival it promises to be a wonderful success. The number of people around exceeded all expectations. The Festival was officially opened at 2.30 p.m. on Sunday by Rev. Fr. M. Condon, C.C., Tallow and Rev. C. E. Foster, Rector, Knockanore Union. Mr. F. McCarthy, Chairman of the Festival Committee presided.

The names of the winners of the various Festival events will be published next week.

Engaged—Congratulations to Miss Lily Hegarty, Glenbeg, Dungourney, whose engagement is announced. Member of a well known family she has been prominent in the rural life of the district for some time. She has been a member of the Legion of Mary, Macra Na Feirme and I.C.A. She is also Hon. Secretary of Dungourney Hall Committee. Some years ago she travelled to the United States in the International Farm Exchange Scheme organised by Macra Na Feirme. We wish her every happiness in the years that lie ahead.

The Late Mr. John Walsh.—We regret to record the death of Mr. John Walsh, Ballydaniel Park, Youghal, which sad event occurred last week. Deceased was member of a widely esteemed family and was held in high regard by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. His death though at an advanced age is very deeply regretted.

There was a large and representative attendance at the removal of the remains and at the interment in the North Abbey Cemetery, Youghal. To his family and relatives we extend our deepest sympathy.

Chief mourners: Mr. Michael Walsh, Youghal (son); Mrs. John Forbes, Kilbeg, Tallow (and Mrs. O'Connor, Ballydaniel (daughters); Mrs. M. Walsh (daughter-in-law), Mr. O'Connor, Mr. J. Forbes (sons-in-law). Forbes family, Kilbeg, Tallow, O'Connor family, Ballydaniel, Youghal, Walsh family, Youghal (grandchildren); O'Brien family Mountmaeke, relatives, etc.

The Late Mrs. Tanner, Cashel and Tallow—The death which occurred recently of Mrs. R. Tanner (nee Hill) of Gaile House, Cashel, occasioned widespread and sincere regret in the Tallow area of West Waterford, of which she was a native. With her husband she farmed extensively at Belvedere Tallow, until a few years ago, and both were very well known and widely respected members of the farming community of that area.

A lady of many estimable qualities, and of a very kindly disposition, she will be particularly remembered for her interest in and her work for the Tallow branch of Macra Na Feirme of which she was a founder member, and her readiness at all times to assist in the activities of the club was an inspiration to others, and made her one of its most prominent and popular members.

Keenly interested in all community affairs she readily placed her many domestic talents at the disposal of the various ladies committees to which she belonged, and although in failing health for some time, her death at a comparatively early age, was a great shock to her many friends. To her bereaved husband and family deep sympathy is extended.

Tallow Tennis Club—The Tallow lawn tennis tournament was decided on Sunday 28th August. The ladies final played between Miss Geraldine McGrath and Mrs. Con Ryan, and after a very exciting struggle Miss Geraldine McGrath emerged victorious. This particular match went the three sets.

The men's final for the Con Ryan Cup was won by Mr. Con Ryan for the second year in succession when he defeated his brother Kevin, whom he also defeated last year. Mr. Con Ryan contemplates retiring from the game now with his honours well won.

The Late Mrs. M. Carey—The death took place at her residence Lisnabrin, Curraglass, on August 22nd, of Mrs. Margaret Carey. Deceased, who was relict of John Carey, was member of a very popular local family, and was held in high esteem by a large circle of friends who deeply regret her death.

The remains, accompanied by a large cortege were removed to Glenarm Church, and the funeral took place to Templevalley (Tallow) cemetery.

To her relatives much sympathy is extended.

Festival Music—Castledyons Pipe Band supplied the music at the opening of Tallow Festival on Sunday. They also played selections of music during the hurling games in the Gaelic Field and later in the evening played on the Square and paraded the town.

Engagement—The engagement is announced of Mr. Bertie Flanagan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Flanagan, Drishane, Killeagh, and Miss Ann O'Brien, Castlemartyr. Miss O'Brien is receptionist at Mr. Kieran Nolan, D.D.S., North Main Street, Youghal.

The Late Mrs. M. Daly—The death took place on August 28th at her residence Ballyneagane, Inch, Killeagh, of Mrs. Mary Daly. Deceased, who was relict of John Daly, was member of an old and very highly respected family, and her death is deeply regretted.

To her son, daughters and relatives we extend our deepest sympathy.

The remains were removed to St. Patrick's Church, Inch, on Monday evening accompanied by a large cortege and the funeral took place to Ardagh cemetery on Tuesday and was both large and representative.

Very Rev. Fr. Barry, P.P., Killeagh, and Rev. Fr. Murphy, C.C., Inch, officiated.

On Holidays From England—Mrs. E. Hennessey, Filey Ave., Stoke, Newington N.16, London, is at present on holidays at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. Leahy, Kilmore, Tallow.

Also home is her sister Mrs. A. Gilroy and family.

Shamrocks And Ballydoff In Drawn J.F.C. Game—At the Gaelic Field, Tallow, on Friday evening, August 26, Ballydoff drew with Shamrocks in a junior football championship game. The standard of football was mediocre. Shamrocks were unlucky as the ball rebounded from a kick from a Shamrocks player over their own crossbar. Had this not happened Shamrocks would have a one point lead at full time. Mr. K. Cunningham, Tallow, was referee.

Whist Results—The overall winners last week was 1st Miss A. Hartigan, Tallow, 145, 2nd, Miss S. Walsh, Tallow 142, 3rd, Mrs. Gough, Lismore and Mrs. O'Mahony, Tallow, 141. The miniature was won by Miss M. Hartigan with a score of 43.

Teas will be served during the interval of tonights (Friday) Monster Whist Drive at St. Catherine's Hall. Drive will commence immediately after the pram race. Admission 4/-.

Local Tit-Bits—It looked as if Cassius Clay and his trainer were active again in the Bridgeside town on Sunday night. We wonder which is the beat, the trainer or Cassius? ! ! !

It is Se n's last chance to make amends to the Fer y colleen. She says she is not going to tolerate any more so, said, isn't it ? ! !

M. J. and Ba e went walking in the rain on Sunday night up Ba k Street way. It was unfortunate the car lights shone full on them ! ! !

And it was our old friend F k again with the Knack e visitor at the Arch on Friday night, although they could have passed unnoticed if they had not spoken ! ! !

Things We Heard—That B y went Glen n way on Friday night.

That the old story of love at first sight applies very forcibly to Pa k. Well it seemed that way at the Arch on Sunday.

That the In th chap's approaches were not effective at Tal e on Sunday evening.

And that the Dun y lady has changed partners again—very fickle-minded indeed.

SAFETY FIRST ASSOCIATION OF IRELAND

What has happened to our pedestrians? For a time it looked as if the battle was won as more people used the right hand side of the road for their country walks. Now it seems caution reigns with about equal numbers on both sides. As there still may be people in doubt on the correct procedure, let us see what the law has to say.

"... a pedestrian shall use a footway if one is provided and if one is not provided shall keep as near as possible to the right edge of the roadway." And again "... a group of twenty persons or more walking along a road shall do so as near as possible to its left edge." From this it is clear that when you go for a walk, you must do so on the right hand side facing the oncoming traffic. Only organised groups of twenty or more may walk on the left. When leading a horse, a dog, or wheeling a pram you must be on the right. So much for the law. There have been prosecutions and convictions of those found walking on the left; you flout the law at your own risk.

But our prime concern is with the way we can most safely and most considerately use the roads. We are bound in conscience to take reasonable precautions to protect our lives as well as safeguarding those of others. Walking on the right is one way to exercise that obligation, and the reasons are obvious.

You can see and avoid danger from approaching traffic, your counterpart on the left cannot. In darkness your face will show in a car's headlights and give warning of your presence. As an added precaution a reflectorised armband could be worn on the left arm. Your feet not easily seen at night, especially when two cars meet, and you are caught between opposing headlights.

If consideration for the motorists takes a low place in our priorities, a healthy regard for life and limb should be enough to get us walking on the right. Parents and people in the public eye should be especially careful that the example they give is at all times above reproach. Concern for the rising accident toll has a false ring when expressed by those who persistently violate the code of good conduct on the road. Discipline is just as necessary in the pedestrian as in any other class of road user if we are to make headway in road safety.
