DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL.

Mr. M. Morrissey, Chairman, presided at the meeting of the above on Friday. Also present—Messrs. J. Dahill, J. Christopher, D. Foley, J. Mansfield, M. Connors, J. F. Foley, P. Byrne, and T. McCarthy, Vice-Chairman.

Use Of Hall

The Dungarvan Excursion Club were granted the use of the hall on Friday, 19th June, for a practice dance.

Medical Examination

A letter was read from Mr. Williams, solr., to the Council, stating that the case, Dr. v. the Council is listed for hearing and is likely to be heard within a few weeks. He suggested that the Council employ a doctor to examine Mr. Dee before the case.

Dr. McCarthy is acting for Mr. Dee. Dr. Casey was appointed to represent the Council.

Water Main Leakage

Mr. E. Fielding, O'Connell street, wrote complaining of the nuisance and loss caused to him by a leakage in the water main opposite his premises. The letter was referred to the B.S.

Sewerage

Mr. M. J. McCarthy, Abbeyside, wrote complaining of the nuisance caused by the bad state of the sewer opposite his premises at Strand street South and King street. The S.S.O. said there was considerable trouble with that sewer during the past few years. He was of the opinion that the trouble was due to the fact that the portion of the sewer under the roadway is only flagged, and is then entering a piped sewer out the strand.

The B.S. was directed to open the road at this point to investigate.

Society Of Woodworkers

A letter was read from Thos. O'Mahony, Hon. Sec. Amalgamated Society of Woodworkers (Dungarvan Branch) asking the Council to hasten the building of the new housing scheme. Mr. Dahill—Refer this letter to the Minister. The Council are not the cause of the delay.

Chairman—Include a copy of the letter in the minutes to the Department.

Abbeyside Park

The application read at the previous meeting from Mrs. M. R. Crotty, asking the Council to clean up and plant with shrubs, etc., the portion of the Abbeyside park opposite her house or alternatively to grant her a long lease at a nominal rent when she would plant the place and remove the present growth of weeds, etc., was considered.

Mr. Dahill asked what power the Council had to make a letting? Chairman—That question does not arise.

Mr. Dahill—Held that when the place opposite the creamery was filled in by the Council a certain man came along and put a railing there and would not allow anyone in.

Mr. McCarthy said the eyes of the Council should be opened by now. When the Council gave the plot to Mrs. Griffin, they gave it to her as a public park which could be used by the people of Abbeyside and Dungarvan. Now everyone in Abbeyside and Dungarvan think this park belongs to Mrs. Griffin, but I say it is not, and I want the public to know that through the Press. The Council were to be consulted as regards the price to be paid for games of tennis, etc., but the Council were never asked for their opinion. Now we have an application from Mrs. Crotty to grow flowers, etc., that is a very different matter. If the Council agree to let this place they could do so for 12 months, two or even three years, but he would say for Heavens sake don't give it to anyone for 20 years.

Chairman—I agree. We should not give a long lease anymore. The lease can easily be renewed from year to year until the place is required by the Council.

Mr. Dahill asked what authority the Council had to make a letting, and said he thought everybody living on the foreshore owned a certain amount in front of their houses.

Chairman—That question does not arise.

Mr. McCarthy said he would not object to giving Mrs. Crotty a lease for two years, provided that the Council could at any time start dumping outside this plot.

Mr. D. Foley—We were dumping there before and some of the people objected and we stopped it.

Mr. McCarthy—We stopped it to please them as we had another place at the time, but we have authority to dump there if we require it.

The Chairman suggested making the letting for terms of 11 months.

Mr. McCarthy then proposed that a lease be granted for three terms of 11 months at 5/- per term. The Council to reserve the right to dump outside the plot.

Seats In Park

Mr. Foley referred to the seats in the Abbeyside Park, and said that at present the most of them were used by men play-

WATERFORD CO. BOARD OF PUBLIC HEALTH

Mr. Commissioner Moynihan, sat at the Boardroom, Co. Home, on Wednesday last, to deal with matters arising under the Board of Health.

Report Of County M.O.H.

The following report was read from Dr. M. O'Farrell, Co. M.O.H., for the month of May: Infectious Diseases.—The following infectious diseases were notified during the month:—Diphtheria, 1; Tuberculosis, 1; Acute Influenza Pneumonia, 1.

The Diphtheria notification was received from Connell No. 2 R.D., and the Acute Influenza Pneumonia notification from Waterford No. 1 R.D.

Fever Hospitals.—There were in all two admissions to County Fever Hospitals during the month and eight discharges therefrom. On the last day of the month, there remained two patients still undergoing treatment.

Notification Of Births.—Births notified during the month numbered forty-three including three Stillbirths. Medical Assistance was requisitioned by Midwives in seven cases.

Tuberculosis.—During the month there were 262 attendances of all patients at Tuberculosis Clinics, which attendances were made up by 79 patients. Two patients are under treatment in the Sanatoria, 9 patients in County Institutions, and 3 non-Pulmonary patients in other Hospitals. Seventeen domiciliary cases were attended by the Tuberculosis Officer, and 9 patients were attended by other doctors, under the Domiciliary Visiting Scheme. One premises was notified as requiring disinfection, and 5 sputa or other specimens were examined. Four contacts were examined. One patient died during the month. Eleven observation cases were seen during the month.

The District Nurses (7) made a total of 272 visits to 68 patients during the month.

General Sanitation.—During the month, Sanitary Sub-Officers throughout the County, carried out 660 inspections of dwellingshouses. Sewers, Water-works, and Strand at Dunmore-East were also inspected.

Dairies, Cowsheds and Milkshops Order.—The Veterinary Surgeons carried out 59 inspections under above order. Their reports were satisfactory, and have been sent before the Board.

The Dairy and Cowshed Inspectors carried out 180 inspections of premises in the County during the month.

Letting Of Cottages.—The following cottages were let—Ballykillmurray, Andrew Cleary, Killossanty, Ballyvolane—Patrick Kiersey, Carrigreen, Kill. Killelton—Only one application was made for that from Thomas Power, Brenan, who is unmarried.

The Commissioner said he would require cards, so that others who frequented the park have to sit on the grass. He thought the seats should not be shifted about, or that the number of seats should be increased.

Mr. Walsh, Town Inspector said at present there were three movable seats and two fixed ones. Two of the movable seats are taken to one of the fixed ones, where a number of men play cards. No action was taken.

Annual Meeting.—The Council fixed the date of the Annual Meeting for the election of Chairman for Wednesday 24th June, at 12 o'clock.

Reinstatement Of Road Surface To Leather Factory.—Mr. Bowen, Co. Surveyor, wrote:—In this case you were paid the sum of £25 in. od., for reinstatement of the surface, and this was your own estimate. You got this money for a specific purpose, how can you devote it to some other purpose. When the streets were handed over to the County Council, no provision was made for this work in the estimate, as it was assumed to be a liability of the E.S.B. and that you had not been paid for it. In the circumstances the liability is clearly on you to either refund the money to the E.S.B. or to pay the Co. Council for doing the work for you. You have no right to this money. Kindly let me hear from you early as the matter cannot be allowed to stand as at present. The B.S. replying to a member, said there was a considerable amount of the money expended in renewing the footway, as well as on the road surface.

Chairman—Was all the money expended? B.S.—Not all.

Mr. Dahill—Ask the Co. Surveyor to accept the balance, and put the road back as it was, or do it ourselves.

Chairman—The Co. Council took over all the roads as they were.

Mr. Christopher—About how much money is left? B.S.—I could not say without going into that account.

The matter was deferred for a week, the B.S. in the meantime to go into the account.

DUNGARVAN DISTRICT COURT.

UNEMPLOYMENT MONEY

Slaughtering Cattle in Unlicensed Premises. Mr. Finger Commits Contempt Of Court. Before Mr. J. S. Troy, D.J.

In the case of Garret Quinn, Ballyreilly, v. Hannah Whelan, Ballinagoul, for £3 2s. 6d. costs due in respect of a previous case. A decree for the amount was given.

In a number of cases under the School Attendance Act by Guard Regan, the usual orders were made.

Motor Charge. Supt. Walsh, charged Mr. Delahunt, Roscrea, with dangerously driving a motor car in Dungarvan on Easter Saturday night, and also with not having Insurance licence in order.

Mr. T. C. Williams, solr., defended. Guard Farrell, said on the 13th April, he saw defendant drive a motor up main street and O'Connell street very fast. He could not get the number of the car and phoned Ballymacarby Guards to stop the car. The car was doing about 35 m.p.h. up the town.

Guard Mackey, Ballymacarby, said he stopped the defendant's car FI 1550. Defendant had not the Insurance licence with him.

Mr. Williams said the defendant was driving his sister from Dungarvan on Roscrea and went through Dungarvan on second gear. His previous car was destroyed and he thought the insurance would be transferred to the present car, but later found that could not be done.

M. Delahunt, bore out his solicitor's statement and said he was driving under 20 m.p.h. at the time. The charge for advertising the cottage to give a chance to a married man to apply. Coolbegan—A like order was made in respect of this cottage.

Lacken Cottage—Four applications were received for the vacant cottage at Lacken, Dungarvan. The letting was adjourned pending a report from the M.O.H.

Knockenpower Water. Mr. Doyle, Engineer, reported on the complaints made by the caretaker of the house. The floor of the collecting tank has been washed away and most of the water is escaping through the ground. About £2 would cover the cost of the necessary repairs which are being carried out.

The report was approved.

Clerk For Co. M.O.H. The Commissioner approved subject to the Department's sanction the appointment of a clerk in the office of the County M.O.H. at a salary of men starting at £10 rising by annual increments of £10 to £20, and for women £120 rising by increments of £10 to £170.

Dairy and Cowsheds Inspectors. Dr. O'Farrell, County M.O.H. wrote calling attention to the fact that in the Waterford No. 1 and Kilmacthomas Dispensary Districts there are no Inspectors under the above Act.

The matter was adjourned to next meeting.

Vaccination Defaulters. A letter was read from the Minister for L.G. and P.H. enclosing extracts re vaccination defaulters.

An order was made that persistent defaulters be prosecuted.

Bill Of Costs. A circular letter from the Department requiring local Authorities to make arrangements with their solicitors to furnish bills of costs not less frequently than one in each financial year in respect of all completed business.

An order was made that the solicitor be requested to furnish bill of costs annually in future.

Helvick Water Supply. The Department wrote, approving of the proposal to provide a water supply at Helvick.

In connection with this matter, Mr. J. Murray, Helvick, appeared before the meeting and asked that the scheme be extended to 15 other ratepayers. He was prepared to give his land free.

Replying to the Commissioners, Mr. Doyle, Engineer, said the scheme if extended would cost £600 to £700. No action was taken.

Lord Ashdown's Estate. Messrs. Stopford and Turner, solrs., for the above estate, wrote regarding the request of the Board of Health that chemical closets be erected in the houses at Mill Row and Barreck Row, Ballymacarby, informing the Board that steps are being taken to have the requirements of the Board of Health complied with.

dangerous driving was dismissed and for the insurance he was fined 20/-.

Adjudged. The cases of Supt. Walsh, v. Patrick Hayes, and John Kieley, for assault on Guard Regan, were adjourned for a month.

Unemployment Money. The Department of Industry and Commerce, summoned John Baldwin, Staig Band, Modeligo, an Old Age Pensioner, for obtaining £7 8s., Unemployment money while not qualified to receive same.

Mr. E. A. Ryan, State solicitor, prosecuted, and Mr. Farrell, solr., defended. Mr. Ryan said that Baldwin could only draw unemployment money while capable of working, yet at this time this man was drawing disablement benefit under the National Health Insurance. He drew £7 8s. from the Unemployment Assistance Fund and certain chunks of beef to which he was not entitled.

Mr. Farrell—We admit we got the Assistance, but we do not admit we made any statement knowing it to be false.

Mr. Ryan—It is ignorance you are pleading really? Mr. Farrell—It is in one sense.

Mr. Linsen, Unemployment Exchange, Lismore, said defendant was 71 years old and illiterate. Witness explained the rules to him when he came to the exchange. He drew £7 8s. from the Unemployment Fund. After the summons was issued he would he would pay back what he had got.

By Mr. Farrell—When Baldwin came to me he had a qualification certificate. Witness asked him his means and he may have told him he had 7/6 National Health Benefit. Defendant asked witness if he could get increased benefit on account of his wife and the necessary form was filled up. He got 3/- extra. As a single man he would be entitled to 6/- a week and with a dependent wife 9/-.

With 7/6 from another source he would be entitled to 3/6. The means assessed in his qualification are 4/4. Defendant did not mention about getting 7/6 a week. It was a Guard at Cappagh told witness of it.

Guard Devaney, said the defendant came to the barrack to sign his forms.

By Mr. Farrell—When I questioned him on the matter of sickness benefit he admitted he had 7/6 a week.

Mr. Brown, Secretary, Local Branch Insurance Society, said defendant applied for National Health Benefit and forwarded medical certificates of unfitness for work.

For the defence, John Baldwin, said when making application for Unemployment Assistance he said he had only 7/6 a week from the Insurance Company.

Mr. Linsen read out a form to him but he did not understand it or if he did he would not draw the money. He could not write. It was his wife sent him about the money as they had nothing else to keep them. Anytime the Guards asked him he told them about the 7/6. He never denied it.

Mr. Ryan—While drawing this money and signing that you were able to work, you were also attending Dr. White and sending medical certificates to Mr. Brown that you were unable to work. Unemployment Assistance is for people who cannot get work.

Mr. Troy said the case was a fraud on his fellow workmen who could not find work. How will you pay back £7 8s.?

Defendant—I don't know.

Mr. Farrell asked for a month to give Baldwin a chance to get the money.

Mr. Troy—I am satisfied he is a complete dodger and I would have no hesitation in sending him to jail.

The case was let stand over to see what the defendant would do as regards payment.

Slaughtering On Unlicensed Premises. The Minister for Agriculture v. Jerome McGrath, O'Connell street, Dungarvan.

Mr. E. A. Ryan, State solr., prosecuted and Mr. T. C. Williams, solr., defended.

Mr. Ryan—This is a prosecution against Mr. McGrath, who is a butcher for slaughtering 7 cattle and 14 sheep on premises other than on registered slaughter premises contrary to the Act. Under this Act a levy was put on people who were allowed to slaughter on registered premises. A considerable sum is due by the defendant in respect of levies made on him for cattle and sheep slaughtered on his premises. He refused to pay the levy and proceedings are being brought against him for the recovery of the amount. The licence he had to slaughter was cancelled because of his refusal to comply with the provisions of the Act.

Mr. Troy—What is the levy? Mr. Ryan—£1 each for cattle and 5/- each for sheep.

Mr. Williams—The reason he did not pay the levy was because he did not get the money he was entitled to from the Department amounting to £75 for free beef supplied. The Department said he did not comply with the regulations.

Mr. Williams—£64 was the claim for the levy, but £75 was due to Mr. McGrath for free beef supplied.

Mr. Ryan—There were complaints about the toughness of the beef.

Mr. Williams—In addition they disqualified the premises.

Mr. McGrath, defendant, said he was using those premises as he had no other. The Department owed him £75.

Presentation Community, Lismore CENTENARY

The Centenary of the advent of the first Presentation Nuns to Lismore will be observed on Sunday 21st inst.

The following extracts from the Annals of the Convent give the history in brief of the foundation of the Institute in Lismore.

Three Sisters—Mother M. Paul Kenny (Superior), Mother M. Aguin Kenny, and Mother M. Francis Keating, came to Lismore from the Presentation Convent, Waterford, on June 21st 1836—accompanied by the Bishop—Most Rev. Dr. Abraham, and his Vicar General, Very Rev. Dr. Foran. Mothers M. Paul and Aguin belonged to a highly respected old family in Carrickbeg and Mother Francis had moved in the highest circles of Catholic Society.

They were cordially received by the Clergy and people of the parish, who regarded the appearance of a Religious Community in their midst as a very great blessing—no establishment of the kind having existed there since the destruction of the Monasteries in the sixteenth century.

The Community occupied a house at the Mall until 1846. Here they experienced the privation and difficulties common to all new foundations. Owing to the unexpected death of one who had promised considerable assistance they were reduced to extreme poverty—often needing the necessities of life. But Divine Providence did not fail those who had left "all" for Him—one generous friend after another being inspired to come to their aid.

On the day of their arrival they were joined by a postulant—Sister Mary Wall

Mr. Troy—It looks hard. If the meat supplied was of the right kind it would be hard lines on you not to get your money, but when the Ministry maintain that the meat supplied was not the right kind the merits are on the other side.

Mr. Ryan—Are there not proceedings being taken against you for the levy? Defendant, yes.

Mr. Nolan, Inspector said the complaint was that defendant supplied cow beef. Other butchers against whom complaints were made were let off with a caution the first time. They only supplied it a few times.

Mr. Troy imposed a fine of 1/- in respect of each animal—22/- in all with 20/- costs. He said no more cattle were to be slaughtered until the premises were licensed or there would be a serious penalty.

Mr. Finger Fined For Contempt. G. Quinn, Ballyreilly, Ring, summoned Mr. Finger, for assault, etc.

Plaintiff said on April 5th he was in his field when defendant drove a heifer through his land. He said—You are trespassing again. You are you b— beggar; you b— Witness said the heifer was not his and to take her away, but defendant used violent language and ran over to hit him with a stick. Witness gave him a clout in the ear. Defendant then took up a stone and tried to hit him, the heifer belonged to Jerry Killigrew.

Witness had no enemy but Finger. He is after him for the past 3 years since he refused him for a man.

A Police Cross-Examiner. Asked did he wish to cross-examine Quinn, Finger said he did.

Fine—Now you b— you (sensation in court).

Defendant then approached the witness box where Quinn was sitting and using very strong and fowery language was called to order by Mr. Troy, but still he kept up the racket.

Mr. Troy—If you don't keep quiet you will go to jail.

Defendant—I am as quiet as anyone could be.

Mr. Troy—You are bound to the peace in £20 and two sureties of £10 each or one month in Waterford jail.

As Finger refused to keep quiet and despite the efforts of the Guards to control him he denounced the plaintiff at full speed. His Worship said that for contempt of court he would fine him 20/- or 14 days in jail.

afterwards known as Sister Michael.

The first Mass was said at the temporary Convent on June 22nd, by the Bishop, assisted by Rev. Patrick Byrne, of Dungarvan then in Deacon's orders.

After Mass His Lordship gave Benediction and having defined the limits of enclosure commended the little Community to the "Prisoner of Love" who was to abide amongst them and to whom they could have recourse in all their needs whether spiritual or temporal.

After a few years when their numbers increased the Nuns began to think of building a Convent having received encouragement and pecuniary assistance from many kind friends. His Grace, the Duke of Devonshire, gave a grant of two acres of ground rent free whereon to build, besides many other generous donations. The foundation stone of the present Convent was laid on August 16th, 1842 by Right Rev. Dr. Foran, and the building was occupied by the Sisters on June 5th 1846. On that day their Venerated P.P.—Dr. Fogarty—conducted them to their new home. The first Mass was offered there by Rev. Patrick Meaney who in his anxiety to accompany the nuns to their Convent had travelled all night from Clonmel in order to reach Lismore at the hour appointed for the removal—five o'clock in the morning.

Though the Convent was then in a rather unfinished state the Nuns were soon able to put it into tolerable order. The Lord Abbot of Mount Mellary—Right Rev. Vincent Ryan—sent some of his saintly Monks to assist in its completion thus saving much expense and inconvenience.

The Sisters were not long in the enjoyment of their new home when it pleased God to visit them with a heavy trial. In "black 49" a malignant fever deprived them on the night of July 11th of Mother M. Francis Keating and her promising young novice—Sister Bridget Power whose earthly remains were followed by the first funeral procession to the Convent Cemetery.

A Committee representative of the people of the town and district has been convened with the approval of our venerated P.P., Very Rev. Canon Burke, to arrange for a fitting presentation to the Community as a memento of this auspicious occasion.

Local Committee Appointed. A meeting was held at the Devonshire Arms Hotel, Lismore, on Monday last, at which all the prominent townspersons attended for the purpose of appointing a Committee to make arrangements for the making of a suitable presentation to the Nuns on the occasion of their Centenary Year of Foundation.

Dr. J. J. Dennehy, was elected Chairman, Dr. Daniel Healy, and Mr. J. W. O'Gorman, solr., were appointed Hon. Secs.

Messrs. J. P. Daly and A. Hickey, were elected Hon. Treasurers.

The following were elected on the Committee:—Messrs. T. Crotty, Chairman Town Commissioners, M. McCarthy, David Noonan, M.I.A.A., Michael Foley, Frank O'Donnell, E. A. Murphy, J. F. O'Donnell, Wm. Baldwin, C. P. Hynes, V.S., and Martin Healy.

It was agreed that a subscription list be opened and that an appeal be made to all past pupils and friends to subscribe towards the presentation.

A deputation was appointed to wait on Very Rev. Canon Burke, P.P., Lismore, to put the matter before him and obtain his approval.

ARDMORE DISTRICT COURT.

Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, D.J. Children For Industrial School On the application of Inspector P. Devlin, N.S.P.C.C., Waterford, two children named Burke, born October 1933 and July 1934, were committed to an Industrial School.

Trespass And Damage Thos. Mulcahy, Curragh, charged Margaret Foley, a neighbour, with trespass and assault.

Mr. T. K. Keane, solr., Youghal, appeared for complainant. There was no appearance on the part of defendant. Mr. Keane said there were three summonses against the defendant (1) for continued trespass of a goat on his land; (2) with abusive and threatening language and assault (3) with wilful trespass on his client's lands.

The complainant was a delicate old man in receipt of a blind pension. He lived alone and had 3 acres which he used for meadow. He had no stock. The defendant evidently thought she could use his land as well as her own and allowed her goats to trespass. When complainant went to her about it she assaulted him.

Who looks after you?—Myself Replying to the Justice, Sergeant Gallagher, said that there was no sign of Mrs. Foley. She was a bit contrary in her manner.

She was bound to the peace in £5 and two sureties of 50/-, fined 9/- for the trespass of the goats, 1/- for the other trespass. Ten shillings costs in each of the 3 cases was allowed.

Unemployment Case John Farrow, Curragh, was charged with attempting to obtain unemployment benefit by false representations.

Mr. E. A. Ryan, State Solicitor, Dungarvan, prosecuting, said that defendant signed the usual form as having been unemployed on 17th, 18th and 19th Nov., while actually he was in receipt of wages. He understood the defendant would admit the offence.

Defendant came forward and proceeded to make a statement. The Justice—He is not going to admit anything. Prove the case.

Guard Ryan, Ardmore, stated that he witnessed the filling of the form referred to. Before doing so he explained it to the defendant.

Mr. J. J. Aherne, Manager, Labour Exchange, Youghal, stated that defendant claimed benefit for the three days in question. Inquiries having been made he got no benefit.

J. Quine, Ardmore, stated that he had the defendant employed on the three days referred to.

The defendant having made a long and involved statement, The Justice said he would fine him 20/-.

Defendant—I have nothing. It is my uncle helps me. The Justice—You can't expect me to accept that from a man of your appearance. I am told most extraordinary things in these Courts.

On Mr. Ryan's suggestion, he was given two months to pay the amount.

School Case Superintendent Walsh, Dungarvan, charged Johanna Morrissey, with the non-attendance of her grandchild at school.

Guard Ryan said the boy was 13 years 9 months and had been absent 26 days out of 56.

The Justice—Why is the grand-mother summoned? The mother is in America.

Defendant—I am a poor widow. The boy was 74 years last month, and I kept him home to help me. I have no one else.

The Justice—Is it worth bothering about this case further? The Superintendent—The teachers are pressing those cases owing to falling attendances.

The case was adjourned to a further Court, the old lady promising to keep the boy at school meanwhile.

LISMORE NOTES

Close of Mission At Ballyduff—A very successful week's Mission, conducted by Fr. Henry and Fr. Killy, of the Vincentian Order, was brought to a close on Sunday evening at Ballyduff Parish Church.

The large attendance at its close was indeed very gratifying to the Missioners who frequently referred in eulogistic terms to the great devotion displayed and the faith which animated the people of the parish during the entire week's Mission.

People flocked to the Confessionals daily, and many hundreds received Holy Communion on Sunday morning, it being the last day for fulfilling the Easter precept.

Inspiring scenes were witnessed on Sunday evening at the close. Rev. Fr. Killy gave a review of the sermons given during the week. He thanked the people for the quiet earnestness and sincerity of devotion that characterised their actions during the week's Mission.

He desired sincerely on behalf of Fr. Henry and himself to thank them for their kind co-operation in making the Mission the great success, which undoubtedly he believed it was.

He particularly thanked the priests of the parish for their great kindness towards them during the short time they spent in their midst and in return he asked to have the people remember them in their prayers. He then gave the renewal of the baptismal vows, while the entire congregation held lighted candles, after which he imparted the Papal Blessing and finally his own benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was then given, and the Mission ended, the entire congregation joining in the singing of Faith of Our Fathers.

West Waterford Divisional Board Meeting—Mr. Frank Ryan, Tallow (Chairman) presided. Also present—Messrs. J. O'Neill, Lismore (Vice-President); Pax Whelan (Secretary); Paul Russell, (Dungarvan); Joe Mason (Cappoquin); C. Curran, (Clashmore); P. Morrissey and J. Allen (Ballylin); P. O'Neill and E. Lynch (St. Carthage's); I. Power and J. Cummins (Stradbally); I. Kyne and H. O'Mahony (Dungarvan); W. Barry and T. Quinn (Pike); P. McGrath and J. Ryan (Cappoquin); J. Cunningham and J. Anderson (Tallow); E. Fitzgerald (Cathal Brigha's); D. Walsh and J. Doherty (Kilrossanty) and Mr. M. V. O'Donoghue, B.E., Chairman of the Co. Board.

Dungarvan lodged an appeal against Ballylin as a result of the Junior hurling championship match played at Cappoquin on May 24th, on the grounds that one of the players (Michael Murray) did not reside in the County and took part in the game.

Mr. J. Allen (Ballylin), explained that the said player assisted Ballylin in all their games and as he was situated within six miles from any team in the Co. Cork, he would ask the Board to deal lightly with the matter.

Mr. T. Kyne speaking for Dungarvan, said that Michael Murray, had applied for permission to play with Ballylin being resident in another County, but his application was ruled out of order being neither signed in Irish nor on Irish paper. He then explained that the said player applied again but his application was submitted to the Munster Council for their decision.

As there had been no meeting of the Munster Council previous to the match he deemed that Ballylin were illegal in playing him.

Mr. Allen then explained that as Mr. Murray had declared his residence, he thought that he was perfectly entitled to play.

Mr. Paul Russell, in corroboration with Mr. Kyne, stated that if such were the case, any player may ignore the County Board or Munster Council and play with what ever team he chooses.

Mr. Frank Ryan, Chairman, said that this was the first time a matter of this particular nature had arisen. The duty of the Board was to give fair play to both sides. He thought that his decision, if he were to give it would not be in favour of a re-fixture of the match, but he was not prepared to rule on it and he would leave the matter to the judgment of the Board.

Mr. Mason suggested a replay, and after a prolonged discussion it was adopted.

Kilrossanty objected to Stradbally on the grounds that the goalie was not properly togged.

Mr. Paul Russell explained that the custodian wore a jersey, but the day being so cold he threw an overcoat over his shoulder. The Chairman ruled in favour of Stradbally.

Permission was granted to Tallow to play the Sarsheld (Cork) in the Abernethy Medal Tournament, at Fermoy on June, 14th.

The Man Who Saved Gaelic Games In New York STRIKING TRIBUTE TO BALLINAMEELA MAN

In its issue of May 16th ult., the "Irish Echo" New York, tells the story of how Mr. Patrick Kenneally, a native of Ballinameela, and a well known member of the Brickey Rangers football team of a few years ago saved Gaelic games in New York.

The "Irish Echo" says—Born at Ballinameela, between Dungarvan and Cappoquin, the present pilot of the New York Gaelic Athletic Association though small of stature is built like a streamlined steam roller and acts like one when he encounters any roughness on the road to his objective.

P. J. Kenneally played football at an early age with the Aglish team and later joined the Brickey Rangers in the Waterford county Championships. During his apprenticeship days at the game he played right full back, but since coming to New York, over a decade ago has played centre forward or forty yards.

To his splendid organising abilities is chiefly due the existence of the present Waterford Senior Football Club of New York; taking the outsiders in hands a few years ago he nursed them gently through the Junior League, always insisting on training and discipline until eventually Waterford captured the junior medals and qualified for the senior ranks.

P. J. Kenneally's fondest hopes were realised when his team reached senior status, but he continued to coach his men and as a result of consistent training, kept his players in the pink of condition and always ready to give a good account of themselves on the field.

He revisited the scenes of his childhood in 1934 and on his return to New York was persuaded by his legion of friends in the city to allow his name to go forward as a candidate for the presidency of the G.A.A. in 1935.

Reluctantly he complied with the request and after a close contest with Tommy Donlan of Galway, present vice-chairman, he secured the position.

P. J. Kenneally accepted this responsible position during a very critical period in the history of the G.A.A. The Association was deeply in debt as a result of the financial failures of the Kilkenny and Galway tours the previous years; misunderstandings had arisen between the Body here and the Central Council in Ireland and in general the outlook was none too bright when the Waterford forward accepted the presidency.

The low financial state of the G.A.A. did not discourage this enthusiastic Gael, who looked around for means whereby the Association he loved so well, might be freed from its financial load.

Having for over ten years given loyal service as an employee of Rees Grocery Stores Inc., he conceived the idea of approaching Mr. Reeves to finance a project which he believed would pull the G.A.A. out of the money morass, viz., a tour of the two champion teams from Ireland.

Fearlessly he approached the head of the famous Irish firm and without preliminary or prelude, "laid his cards on the table." What a relief the Ballinameela boy must have felt when Mr. Reeves calmly asked him the amount needed and without further question consented to finance the project.

Young Kenneally was literally walking on air for some days following this interview, for while he never doubted the generosity of his boss, he scarcely anticipated such sudden success. But a fly still appeared in the amber. The G.A.A. here was in debt to Cavan, Galway and Kilkenny teams in Ireland and tours to the U.S.A. were taboo with the Central Council; to add physical trouble to his mental worries, P. J. Kenneally broke his leg in a football game against Mayo at Innisfail Park.

As he hobbled around on crutches following his "stretch" in the bone repairing plant, he continually thought of the Gaelic situation in Ireland; some representative from New York should go to the Old County he believed, and then some weeks afterwards the Governing Body requested that the best man for the job was the President himself.

While still on crutches, he made the trip. He interviewed the Central Council and the Counties concerned and after much negotiations with the Gaels at home he returned to New York with a contract for a tour of the Cavan and Limerick teams.

The annual convention of the Iloca G.A.A. took place during his absence but was unanimously re-elected President, and on his taking up duties soon after preliminary preparations for the tour of the Irish teams got under way and New York Gaels saw a very bright light appear on the Gaelic horizon.

Never has a tour aroused such enthusiasm as this one. The coming of Cavan and Limerick is the principal topic in Irish circles and a sell out at the Yankee Stadium on Sunday is assured.

When this tour is over and when the New York G.A.A. disposes of its liabilities, the name of P. J. Kenneally will be remembered by the Gaels of New York as the man who stepped into the breach when the life of the Gaelic Athletic Association was threatened. And when the name of the Waterford footballer is mentioned, coupled with it must be the name of his employer, Mr. Reeves, whose generosity made possible the tour of the great Cavan and Limerick teams.

Quarant Ore—The annual Forty Hours Adoration were begun in St. Anne's Church, Ballylisen, on this (Friday) morning, when Holy Mass was celebrated by Rev. T. O'Shea, C.C., assisted by a very large congregation. The Corpus Christi procession will take place immediately after the late Mass on Sunday, and the entire Quarant Ore ceremonies will be brought to a solemn close with the imparting of Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. The high altar has been very tastefully decorated with flowers and lighted candles for the Exposition of the Sacred Host.

At Kilrossanty—The Forty Hours Adoration commenced in St. Brigid's Parish Church, Kilrossanty, on Wednesday morning, when Fr. Kehoe, P.P., offered up Holy Mass, and vast numbers of the faithful in attendance approached the altar rails.

Throughout Wednesday and Thursday a constant stream of pious worshippers visited the Church, which was crowded again at this (Friday) morning's Mass, following which the usual procession of the Sacred Host took place, and the Quarant Ore ended with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament, given by Fr. Kehoe, assisted by Fr. Harty, C.C.

IN MEMORIAM

(Third Anniversary)—In memory of our dear Mother—Mrs. Elie Walsh, (nee Mulcahy) Barranashgane, Four-Mile Water, who died on June 14th, 1933, at Church Street, Dungarvan. St. Anne and St. Anthony pray for her.

Cherished thoughts of one so dear. Oft times bring a silent tear. Thoughts return to scenes long past. Time runs on, but memory lasts. (Lena and Daisy, New York, U.S.A.)

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

MISSION IN DUNGARVAN.—The three weeks Mission at the Parish Church, Dungarvan, which has been conducted by Fr. Murphy, Fr. Fox, and Fr. Fitzgerald, of the Redemptorist Order, with such conspicuous spiritual success, will close on Sunday next. The success of the Mission has been never exceeded. The attendance of the parishioners at the various services morning and evening left nothing to be desired and was proof of the undying faith of the good people of the town and of the love and esteem they entertain for their beloved Pastor Very Rev. Canon O'Brien, P.P., V.F., and his worthy Curates.

9th JULY.—July 9th is Dungarvan Show Day and entries for same will close on June 27th. Everything points to a record entry and with the usual high class quality of the exhibits in horses and cattle, the event is sure to be a perfect success. In addition to the many new attractions and Side-Shows, there will be Sheep Dog Competitions confined to the Co. Waterford, and as some of the best specimens of Sheep Dogs are to be found in the Comeragh and Knockmealdown areas, the contests should be very keen. The Jumping Exhibition will be the best ever seen.

A BRILLIANT BANKER.—In the recent results of the examinations held by the Institute of Bankers in Ireland, we notice that Mr. M. F. Lynch, Provincial Bank, Cork, passed his final with distinction. Mr. Lynch is son of Mrs. Lynch, Main street, Dungarvan and the late Mr. P. F. Lynch, Manager Provincial Bank, Tipperary. He had a brilliant educational career at Blackrock College, Dublin, and was also a Rugby and Tennis player of high rank. In his recent examination he proved himself an expert on Banking and Finance. That is a record for a boy scarcely out of his teens, and we heartily congratulate him on behalf of his numerous friends and well wishers, and hope that this magnificent beginning is only a forerunner of the heights he will attain in his profession with length of years.

GILT-EDGED INVESTMENT.—Some time ago we dealt at length with the great advantage it would be to the country as a whole and to Co. Waterford particularly, if the vast plain of thousands of acres on the top of the Comeraghs was laid out as a tourist resort with a modern Hotel and its accessories of swimming pools, Golf Links, Tennis Courts, Aerodrome, etc. The capital required to do the work would be the soundest investment possible and now that France is gone half red with strikes and commotion on every side, all the tourists would flock here if we had made provision for their entertainment. But though nothing has been done as yet, the day will come in the near future when the finest site in this or any other country—the plain of the Comeraghs—will be utilised as the centre tourist attraction in the Western Hemisphere.

A "POPULAR" PRESIDENT.—Mr. Blum, is the new President of France—and is also President of the Popular Front and he is bound to be very popular in every way. His first decree was to give a 40-hour week to all workers together with payment for holidays and several other long wanted concessions. Our workers have all those things and we made no noise about them. Only that no provision has been made to fix the working hours of the Farmers and their labourers in the Free State our country would be ideal. We hope at an early date the Dail will repair this outstanding defect in recent legislation. After all working from daylight to dark—milking the cow, following the plough, thinning the beet, etc.—is not good enough.

TREATY SIGNATORY'S DEATH.—While addressing a meeting at Dun Laoghaire, Co. Dublin, last Saturday evening, Mr. E. J. Duggan, solicitor, a signatory to the Treaty died suddenly.

DO WE WANT A SENATE?—A Commission has been appointed to examine and report on the question of whether we should have a Senate or not. We abolished the last one. In our opinion a Senate is required but not a political Senate. We are in favour of a Senate composed of practical, commonsense, level-headed and business-like men, who have no idea of what Count of the Hundred Battles and Brian Boru really meant to do for Ireland in the dark ages, but who are imbued with a desire to see this old country and its people prosper in peace and security, and who will guide us along calmly and gently without a jolt towards the goal of National prosperity and Independence. In that Senate all sections of our people should be represented in the proportion of their general worth with the farming and industrial sections having the greatest number. As to payment of Senators, we think their expenses would be sufficient.

CATTLE LICENCES.—According to a circular from the Department of Agriculture, Licences for the export of fat cattle, bulls and cows, will cost 1/6 each in future. It is also understood there will be no further inspections of the cattle in respect of which export Licences are sought.

SPORTS MEETING

A meeting of the Dungarvan Athletic and Cycling Club will be held in the Town Hall this (Friday) evening at 8.15 p.m. All members and intending members are requested to attend. Matters in connection with the forthcoming Garda Divisional Sports at Dungarvan on August 2nd, will be discussed.—P. Walsh, Hon. Secretary.

APPEAL FOR FUNDS.—We have much pleasure in commending the Appeal for funds being made in aid of the parents and dependents of the late John Egan, Dungarvan, who was shot under such tragic circumstances. His family are in poor circumstances, and are deserving of the generous assistance at the hands of the public. Subscriptions will be received by Messrs. M. Morrissey, Chairman, U.D.C., T. McCarthy, Vice-Chairman, U.D.C., and W. O'Meara, Town Clerk, and duly acknowledged. And as he who gives quickly gives twice, it is expected that no time will be lost in forwarding subscriptions for this worthy cause.

DUNGARVAN EXCURSION CLUB.—All arrangements are now almost complete for the Club's Annual Outing which will take place on Sunday, 19th July next the revised date fixed on. The journey will be through New Ross, Wexford, Courtown, Arklow, Vale of Avoca, Meeting of the Waters, Rathdrum, and Glendalough and back home via Tra-more. First-class Hotel accommodation has been booked throughout the tour so that nothing has been left undone to ensure an enjoyable day's journey through historic and beautiful Wicklow and Wexford. Over 100 members are availing of this opportunity of seeing what is regarded as the Garden of Ireland which Thomas Moore has immortalised as the "Valley so Sweet" of his dreams. The Committee are to be congratulated on their enterprise.

GOLF.—The competition for the President's Cup at Clonea Links on Tuesday was won by Mr. W. G. O'Mahony with Mr. McAdoo, runner up. The golf was of a high standard, the match only finishing on the 19th green.

CAPTAIN'S PRIZE.—The prize presented by Mr. J. Lynch, Captain, will be played for on 18th June. The competition will be an innovation at Clonea being a 36 hole eclectic one in which each player may pick the two best 9 hole scores of his four rounds which will count towards the competition. Entries close on 16th inst. Draw the same evening. Following the competition a social evening will be held particulars of which will be circulated among members who may bring friends.

FOOTBALL AT TOURANEENA.—On Sunday next, June 14th there will be a great football challenge match at Touraneena between the local club and the Nire, starting at 2.30 old time. Touraneena Fife and Drum Band will attend and a big attendance is anticipated.

SYMPATHY.—Sincere sympathy will be extended to Mr. Michael Arrigan, a popular and efficient Professor at St. Augustine's College, Dungarvan, on the death of his father, Mr. P. Arrigan, Deepark, Carrick-on-Suir, which occurred this week.

LATE MRS. WALSH, GARRYCLOYNE, COLLIGAN.—On Friday last, the obsequies of the late Mrs. Walsh, wife of Mr. John Walsh, Garrycloyne, whose death we reported in our last issue, took place at the Parish Church, Colligan, when there was Requiem Office and High Mass for the repose of her soul.

There was a large congregation present, many having travelled long distances to attend and to pay a tribute to the memory of the deceased and the esteem in which the members of her family are held. The interment took place in the adjoining graveyard. The chief mourners were—Mr. John Walsh (husband); Patk. (son); Noreen and Mary (daughters); Mrs. Browne, Colligan; Mrs. Prendergast (sisters); Thomas and Daniel Hefferman (brothers); Peter Walsh, Patrick Walsh, Timothy Browne, John Prendergast (brothers-in-law); Mrs. Cliffe, Mrs. T. Hefferman (sisters-in-law); James Prendergast, Clerihan; Jas. Cliffe, Colligan (nephews); Alice Prendergast and M. Cliffe, (nieces); James Sheehan, Ruska, Cahir; D. Sheehan, Kilkoran; Jas. CAPPOQUIN NOTES.

Mt. Mellary New Church Building Fund.—A wonderfully attractive programme has been prepared for the Monster Bazaar and Grand Fancy Fair to be held at the Town Park, Cappoquin, from 21st to 29th June, in aid of the Mount Mellary New Church Building Fund. In another page will be found complete details of the interesting programme of amusements.

Ladies To The Rescue.—Not within living memory has the town of Cappoquin undergone such a thorough process of renovation as it is undergoing at present in preparation for the great Bazaar which will be opened in the Town Park here on Sunday June, 21st in aid of the Mount Mellary New Church Building Fund. Houses which up to a few weeks ago had shown little but external marks of neglect and decay have suddenly blossomed almost into something like the most brilliant Bridal Array, and the work of re-painting and renovation is now being carried on at high pressure in every part of the town.

If the Bazaar did nothing else for Cappoquin but to give such a fillip to the work of beautifying the town, it would, indeed, have done much good work, and the people, one and all, deserve great credit for the spirited and generous manner in which they are vying with each other in their desire to have their houses look smart and neat in the eyes of the thousands of visitors who will be amongst us for the first time within the next fortnight. A number of ordinary skilled house-painters and decorators, who have usually been more than sufficient for this class of work, have now proved to be totally inadequate for the purpose, and the result is that many a householder who had never previously handled a paint brush have now become adept artists in the work. The people of Cappoquin have nobly risen to the occasion in the work of renovating their houses in honour of Mt. Mellary and the Monster Bazaar and when the streets will have been decorated next week with arches of evergreen, flags and bunting, the usual everyday appearance of the town will have given place to a scene of brightness and festive splendour, and we need have little fear of being adversely criticised by any of the thousands of strangers who will visit Cappoquin during the period of this great Bazaar.

Price of Pigs.—The price of fat pigs still remains at 63/- per cwt. at the Cappoquin Bacon Factory. LISMORE NOTES. Public Procession.—The town of Lismore is getting a complete overhaul for the Procession in honour of the Blessed Sacrament which is to take place through the principal streets on next Sunday. Grottoes are being set up everywhere and the houses are being lavishly decorated with bunting, statues, evergreens, and holy pictures. The Procession will leave St. Carthage's Cathedral at 2.30 and will proceed over South Mall, along Main street to the Christian Brothers Monastery, where Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament will be given from a special altar erected for the occasion. The Procession will then proceed through Upper New Street, along by the Railway Station, Road and back to the Cathedral by Chapel Street. The Clonnel Band will contribute the Sacred music.

G.A.A. NOTES & NOTIONS

By "CROTOG."

Well, the Munster Senior and Minor Hurling Championships of 1936 have ceased to interest Waterford. At Fermoy last Sunday we made our exit, though beaten our hurlers went down fighting gloriously especially the Seniors. We had hoped for greater success but it was not to be. The fates were unkind. Once again we taste the bitter cup of defeat, but our disappointment is relieved by the knowledge that our Senior hurlers fought a heroic game every inch of the way against one of the fastest moving teams in all Ireland. We were defeated but not discouraged. On the contrary, so gritty a display did our lands give against enormous odds that there is every reason to expect that by the time the 1938 Hurling League starts Waterford will have built up a team to challenge confidently the best counties in Munster.

Now, let us examine the causes of our Senior hurling defeat. Of the original fifteen players selected to line out for Waterford only ten took the field. On the total panel of twenty-four selected there were in all seven defections. Most of these were as mysterious as they were sudden. The Selection Committee did not become aware of the true nature of their plight until the train reached Fermoy one hour and a half before the time fixed for the match. Then they were faced with the unenviable and almost insuperable task of picking a team to uphold the hurling credit of the county from among the fourteen players who had travelled. (The Tallow three did not arrive until 3 p.m.; they travelled by car). It speaks volumes for the efficiency of the Committee and the spirit of the players that not alone did they make a gallant fight of it but they went within an ace of defeating the finest team fielded by Clare for several years. And what a sensation that would have caused! All honour to the splendid band of hurlers who carried the Decies flag so nobly in the darkest hour of its trial. Clare's victory was not the result of hurling superiority. Our men hurled them, in fact, out-hurled them. The Waterford defeat was due to last minute sensational defections among the selected team. Deceptions and inter-club jealousies at home are the root cause of our downfall. Few will deny that had the team fielded out as selected, Clare would have been beaten and beaten well. As it was, in spite of all defections and in spite of their undoubtedly serious effect on the morale of the rest of the team, Waterford made a glorious bid for victory and all but succeeded.

The game itself had some peculiar features. Our backs played stubbornly; though not as fast as the speedy Clare attackers, they more than held their own. Our forwards showed up well. In the first half, they drove home their attacks with vigour, but in the second half they lost their several scores. From the first to the final whistle, Clare dominated the midfield play; this was the weak spot on Sunday's team. It was unfortunate that the two crack Clare hurlers, Larry Blake and Houlihan should have been marked so ineffectively by their Waterford vis-a-vis. The Army star's long accurate drives and frees were the deciding factor in Clare's favour. On the loose, he played havoc to Decies hopes and the pity of it was that on the few occasions on which he was closely shadowed he proved to be very moderate indeed.

An unfortunate circumstance mid-way through the second half was the turning point in the game. Connie Ryan, taking a side line puck in Clare territory, pushed the ball with his hurley; the referee promptly whistled for a Clare free, which taken smartly by Houlihan, was seized on by Hennessy, who flashed it to the Waterford net. Before the backs had recovered from their surprise, Quirke, the Clare midfielder, securing possession drove to Loughane who passed to the unmarked Mullane; the latter, steadying himself, drove an unstoppable shot to the net to give the men of Thomond the lead for the first time. Thus did Waterford lose its grip on the game.

Judges on Sunday's display, at least eleven of the losers hurled so magnificently as to leave no doubt of their claims to be ranked as the county's best. Three and possibly four fell below the standard of the others; they did their very best, undoubtedly, but they were not good enough. A weakness on the right flank gave Clare a couple of soft scores. Poor finish in left corner attack lost two certain goals. These are valuable lessons. Properly utilised a League fifteen of high promise can be built up for the Autumn of 1936.

Never before has Christy Moylan touched the form which he showed on Sunday; he hurled like a super-man. An amazing example of indomitable spirit considering the fact that his injured fingers are still far from healed.

"Dec" Goode reacted to the Selector's decision in dropping him by playing the best game of his career. That is the spirit one would wish to see animating all Decies players. The Tallow pair, Curley and "Pa" Sheehan were sound all through the former had a real tough proposition to manage in the flying Mullane. "Pa-ven" playing with his usual consistency and spirit kept the Clare defence on edge.

"Johnny" Fanning was the best back on the field and gave a well-nigh perfect exposition of defence play. His club partners Dick and Connie Ryan, acquitted themselves with distinction, the former by his spilling tactics and the latter by his brilliant opportunism and accuracy which in the first half raised several minor flags. Keane, at full, was his usually reliable self and amply up to his mark as effectively that the Clare full-forward had a blank sheet. "Bon" Ryan could not be blamed for any of the shots that beat him. "Paddy" Duggan strove valiantly to hold the fiery Loughane in check, but only partially succeeded. Mick Regan, playing centre forward, crashed home Waterford's first goal and hurled with vigour to the last. His heroic efforts to turn the tide in the closing minutes were characterized and consequently ploughing in the wake of Houlihan for most of the hour. Few could credit that it was the same Tom who delighted Inter-Provincial crowds a few short years ago with his flawless displays. But such is hurling.

Young Barron was no match for the peerless Larry Blake. Possibly he has been asked too much by thrusting him thus early into Senior hurling. Kinsella, left forward, was unbalanced in his methods and never fitted in smoothly with the rest of the attack. Tom Greany had an unhappy game—he was obviously untrained and consequently ploughing in the wake of Houlihan for most of the hour. Few could credit that it was the same Tom who delighted Inter-Provincial crowds a few short years ago with his flawless displays. But such is hurling.

The Minor hurling match in Fermoy calls for little comment. Both teams were bad but ours a little more lop-sided than the Clare string. Our backs were excellent, our mid-field sound, but our forwards were far below minor inter-county standard. The Decies lads made Clare a present of the game by squandering innumerable scoring chances in the first half. Seldom has such a sorry display of forward tactics been served up in inter-county competition. All the fine work of such mid-field stalwarts and wingers as Feeney, O'Connor and Foley, was nullified by the poor finish in attack. Two dozen wides and two scores in the opening period tell its own tale.

Next Sunday a football game of more than usual interest is on the Gaelic programme. Capouquin travel to Ballyduff to tackle the homesters in the second round of the Junior Football Championship. Recent developments will have whetted the keen football rivalry between these clubs. There is every expectation of a big crowd and a close game. Owing to the great Annual Corpus Christi Procession which takes place in Lismore that day, the match will not start until 7.30 p.m. Summer Time. This should suit the convenience of all, especially the Gaelic public who will not be slow to welcome this departure by solidly supporting these evening games.

BALLINGOWN

After thirty long years as a wanderer, I return once more to my home. Around the green fields of old Erin, I intended once more for to roam. There are green fields all over the Island. Wherever you roam up or down, But no where, as green have I found them. As at home in sweet Ballingown.

From the hill here you gaze o'er the valley, Where the wild flowers in splendour do grow, And in spring time the farmer makes ready, His root crops and oats for to sow, The heather and furze are in blossom, The hillsides are mantled in bloom, But no where are they quite so handsome As on the ditches at sweet Ballingown.

The honey-suckle vines are in blossom, And the Hawthorne scents up the way, At this time of the year birds are nesting, And their songs can be heard all the day, The primroses and cowslips as ever, Are found in the fields to abound, And the violet blooms in profusion, In the borean at sweet Ballingown.

The blackbird and thrush are now whistling, And in song they welcome each morn, The birds in the woods give a chorus, Of thanks that a new day is born, The woods are now scarce in old Ireland, Our trees have most all been cut down, But the crows find a few there to nest in, As at Walshe's in sweet Ballingown.

The rivers they rush from the mountains, As onward they flow to the sea, They seem just like crystal fountains, And their voices are calling to me, Their song it is always welcome, From the hills they run merrily down, But that song it seems so much sweeter, As they pass close to sweet Ballingown.

To sit for a chat by the fireside, To start at a quarter to eight, When Tommy the smith told his yarns, Old friends, but his stories were great, How brave Patsy Lynch helped the rebels, God rest the brave boys who're no more, And then the queer doings of Pat Cronin, When he travelled the road to Lismore.

And oft times I feel mighty lonesome, When I think of those friends far away, And again through the green fields of Erin, In dreams of old I fancy I stray, But some day I'll cross the blue ocean, And visit that land of renown, When Ireland her exiles is calling, And I'm sailing for sweet Ballingown.
