When I was young, I was white. You were by my side. Now I am dark.

When I was young, I was a girl. Now I am a woman.

When I was young, I had long hair. Now I have short hair. When I was young, I was a girl.

Wind blows gently from the sky. Now I am a woman. Nurturing and caring for people.

When I was young, I wrote letters. The long letter was torn. Now I forget the mirror.

Look at family matters. When I was young, I was a girl. I was busy all day.

Now I am a woman. The house is so quiet. When I was young, I was a girl.

Now I am a woman. I am walking fast. The story of the old man.
