New Brunswick

Pence Issue

1851 Engraved. Blue Paper
Imperforate

3d red

3d dark red

3d dark red
Watermarked

6d olive yellow

6d orange yellow

6d mustard yellow

1sh bright red violet

1sh dull violet

New Brunswick

Charles Connell
5c brown

This stamp was never issued. Postmaster Charles Connell decided to use his portrait on the most commonly used stamp rather than Queen Victoria. No. 8 was issued in its place.

1860 Cents Issue, Perf 12

Locomotive

Steamship

On July 1, 1867 New Brunswick joined the Dominion of Canada.