Free City of Danzig was a city-state under the protection of the League of Nations from 1920-1939, consisting of the Baltic Sea port of Danzig and nearly 200 other small localities in the surrounding areas.
After the German invasion of Poland in 1939, the Germans abolished the Free City and incorporated the area into the newly formed Reichsgau of Danzig-West Prussia.
After the city's capture in 1945 it was fully integrated into Poland (Gdansk) as a result of the Potsdam Agreement.
