Gdansk

Gdansk

Gdansk (Danzig) and surrounding areas (Sopot, Oliwa, Tiegenhof [Nowy Dwór Gdański] and Neuteich [Nowy Staw] as well as further localities) were excluded from the territory of the German Reich by the Versailles Peace Treaty in 1920. A referendum was not held on this matter.

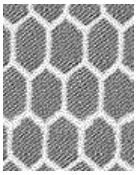

The Free City of Danzig was placed under the protection of the League of Nations as an independent territory.

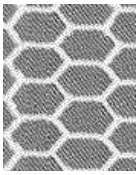

Poland had the right to maintain its own port in Gdansk. For this purpose, there was an independent Polish port post office.

On September 1, 1939, the day of the invasion of Poland by the German Reich, Gdansk was reincorporated into the German Reich.
