QE2 OVERPRINTS SERIES

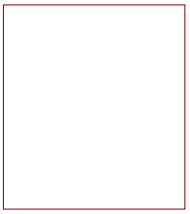

The definition of overprint on postage stamps of Great Britain is that it applies when a stamp which was originally issued for postal use has been overprinted for a further official use, for example to identify a territory such as Kuwait, a set of post offices such as Morocco Agencies, security eg Army official, or surcharged to amend or qualify the monetary value. This series contains stamps that were overprinted for the territories of Bahrain, British Postal Agencies in Eastern Arabia, Kuwait, Morocco Agencies, Morocco Agencies Tangier and Qatar during the reign of Queen Elizabeth II
