Album Contents

This album contains United States general postage issues for the years 2010 through 2019.

Album Organization

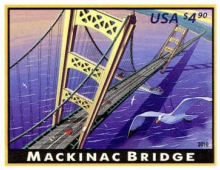

This album is organized by year of issue and within year of issue by definitives followed by commemoratives. Exceptions to this ordering occur when variants of a particular stamp were issued over a period of years. In such cases all the variants appear in the first year of issue. Additionally, if a series, such as Prominent Americans was issued over a period of years, the whole series appears in the first year of issue. Within this broad organization, the stamps are generally arranged in Scott catalog number order (though the catalog numbers do not appear). Deviations from Scott catalog number ordering occur for such things as page aesthetics, grouping stamp formats (e.g. booklet panes), and keeping variant types together.

Optional Capabilities

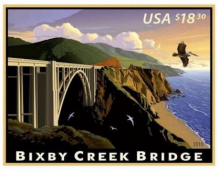

The album includes a number of formats/categories of stamps which you may wish to exclude from the album you print for yourself. The ALBUM GENERATION OPTIONS discussion which follows these notes in the .txt file explain how to do this customization.

2010 Cowboys of the Silver Screen

Roy Rogers
(1911-1998)
sang his way to silver screen stardom in the late 1930s, and by 1943 Republic Pictures was calling him "King of the Cowboys." For millions of fans, Rogers was the essence of the Western hero, the good guy with the white hat, warm smile, and exemplary character.

44¢ Roy Rogers

Tom Mix
(1880-1940)
made his movie debut in 1909 and by the 1920s was one of the most popular stars of silent Westerns. In his action-packed movies, this silver screen cowboy displayed athleticism, fearlessness, and expert riding and roping abilities as he chased down villains and rescued damsels in distress.

44¢ Tom Mix

William S. Hart
(1864-1946)
starred on Broadway and in theatrical productions across the country before he made his first appearance as a silver screen cowboy in 1914. During his cinematic career, this acclaimed actor insisted on authentic depictions of the Old West and its people; he frequently played a stalwart, tough-as-nails cowboy.

44¢ William S. Hart

Gene Autry
(1907-1998)
was a successful radio performer before he became the silver screen's first singing cowboy star in the early 1930s. With his distinctive singing style and easygoing personality, Autry entertained countless fans in nearly 100 films; he also recorded more than 600 songs during his career.

A military strip with universal appeal, Beetle Bailey first appeared in September 1950. Possibly the laziest man in the army, Private Beetle Bailey is an expert at sleeping and avoiding work. His chronic indolence antagonizes Sergeant Orville P. Snorkel, who is tough on his men but calls them "my boys."

44¢ Beetle Bailey

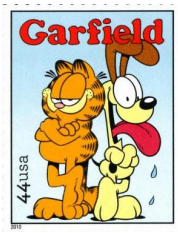

Calvin and Hobbes explores the fantasy life of six-year-old Calvin and his tiger pal, Hobbes. The inseparable friends ponder the mysteries of the world and test the fortitude of Calvin's parents, who never know where their son's imagination will take him. The strip ran from November 1985 to December 1995.

44¢ Calvin and Hobbs

Offering an idealized portrait of American adolescence, Archie existed only in comic-book form before debuting in newspapers in 1946. A typical small-town teenager with a knack for goofing things up, 17-year-old Archie Andrews is often torn between haughty brunette Veronica Lodge and sweet, blonde Betty Cooper.

44¢ Archie

Dennis the Menace follows the antics of Dennis Mitchell, a good-hearted but mischievous little boy who is perpetually "five-ana-half" years old. His curiosity tests the patience of his loving parents and neighbors, guaranteeing that their lives are anything but dull. The comic debuted in March 1951 as a single-panel gag.
