

A fun-filled celebration in support of marine conservation in Georgia Strait

Salish Sea Day

At the VANCOUVER INTERNATIONAL CHILDREN'S FESTIVAL

Thursday, May 30th, 2002 10 am - 5 pm

Vanier Park 1100 Chestnut Street

Salish Sea Day Activities

- Check out the Salish Sea Pavilion featuring the Vancouver Aquarium AquaVan, Gyataku (fish printing), and Environmental Displays.
- Don't miss the Salish Sea Day parade with the Mortal Coil Rain-Forest Stilt Dancers (11:45am)
- The wonderful Story Telling of renowned author Della Burford

Mainstage Performances

Holly Arntzen and the Dream Band

Mon. May 27, 10:00am #3, Wed. May 29, 11:30am. #33 &

Thurs. May 30, 10:00am #42

BANDSHELL ENTERTAINMENT - 12:15pm

Featuring Holly Arntzen and the Dream Band

With Cowichan elder Abner Thorne, and Leonard George of the Tsleilwaututh Nation and MC Briony Penn

Plus Lloyd Arntzen and Grandkids • Jack Fleming, wash tub bass extraordinaire • The Sweetnotes • "Shutterfly" David Sinclair and kids • The Carsons • "Off Their Leash" a young performers and professional musicians jam • Darvinder Hundle, classical Indian musician • School choirs from Prince Charles, Queen Alexandra and Moberly schools

Gate Fee: $5.00 or FREE with a Children's Festival show ticket

More info: www.vancouverchildrensfestival.com or www.salish.ca

Public tickets: Ticketmaster 604.280.4444 www.ticketmaster.ca School tickets: 604.708.5655

Co-produced by:

Sponsored by:

Canada

Environment Canada

Fisheries and Oceans Canada

Parks Canada

