The main opposition p in the present T Rep is the so-called Soc. Dem. tic Populist P, after the merger of the SODEP with the Pop. P. in —. (—)

This was not the first pol. party in Turkish history with the epithet "Soc. Dem."

20 Febr 1919 Visit to the Imperial Palace
to submit their party prog.
but denied an audience with the Sultan

28 May 1919 participated in the extraordinary
Imperial Council convention & defended the idea that T could be saved only by the application of Pres. Wilson's principles who is considered himself a Soc. Dem.

21 July 1919 Took part in the opp. front
formed against the 3rd Cab.
of Ismail Ferit Ps. denouncing
the reactionary the Amusee.

contradicts
rumors of a merger with
Nat. Dem. S.

End of 1919 No success in the Gen. Elections

21 Sept 1920 Wrote a (2nd) letter (after 3 or 4 months later than the 1st)
to MK Ps. calling him "respectable comrade" & considering
him a member of their party.

Pub'd a book: See.

1923

Must have been closed down
after the liberation?

Meri / Geni Hayat
(89/138) Pub're letter
replying criticisms.

- Reputed to be a free-mason.
  - Called a "dictator" for his high-handed manners in the party
  - Poorly evaluated by the Marxists Called "an old man protocol-prone" far from the masses" by the Gen. Sect. of the TKP.

30 July 1924 Attempted to revitalize the P but denied official recognition

22 Aug. 1930 again

25 Ap. 1931 became an independent candidate in Ist. for one of the 4 non-party chairs in the Gen. Els. (together with 50 others!)
