

A. Rawlinson, C.M.G., C.B.E., D.S.O.
LT. COL. R.G.A. AND COMMANDER R.N.V.R.

Adventures in the Near East 1918-1922

(London & New York = Andrew Melrose Ltd.)

1st ed. June 1923

2nd ed. Nov. 1923

3rd ed. Dec. 1924

Library of the British Embassy - Ankara
(Constantinople)

+ Gen. Introduction - Adm. Sir Percy Scott

Part I - The "Hush-Hush" Army (May-Nov., + Int. - Maj. Gen. L.C. Dunsterville. 1918)

Part II - Intelligence in Transcaucasia (Feb. - + Int. - Gen. Sir G. Milne. Aug., 1919)

Part III - In Kemalst Turkey (Oct. 1919 - Nov.
+ Int. - Lieut. Gen. Sir H. Harrington. 1922)

Various photographs.

Yazar Lord Curzon'un kardesi değıldir.
Bak. Karabekir, İstiklâl Harbimiz s. 696

(4. Ordu Komutanı)
Ağabeyi General Sir Henry Rawlinson imti, Kuradan Hindistan Baş Komutan
Lord Rawlinson olmuş.

s. 7, dipnotu.

Rawlinson, Adventures...

Ermeni sermezliği s. 74 Merkezi Hazer Cüm.
Hazer hükümetinin Servas Bakam Gen. Bogratouni.
"(An Armenian, and the only one of that race for whom I have, at any time, entertained any respect.)"

Görevi s. 251-52 Erzurum MK'm "Misak Milli"ci Londra'da

"I then received instructions from Lord Curzon that I should, if possible, see Mustapha Kemal again and endeavour to ascertain as definitely as might be possible from him what Peace terms his party were expecting to obtain, and what conditions (short of these terms of their "Pact" which was looked upon as impossible) they would be prepared to accept. At the same time it was to be officially understood that I was returning to Anatolia on purely military duty, for the purpose of reporting as to the fulfilment by the Turks of the military conditions of the Armistice..."