Dear Dr. Tunaya:

I am sending you one of the three materials which you wanted to be summarized from the Russian source. It is only a rough translation and summary, and, therefore, do not look for perfect English in it. Nor am I sure that that is what you wanted.

I will do the other two a little later. The delay in sending you the enclosed is due to the fact that I have been extremely busy recently doing the final work for the Press ~~on~~ our second volume. It has now been officially announced that both our volumes: Soviet Russia and the East, 1920-1927, and Soviet Russia and the West, 1920-1927 will be out on the market in mid May.

I hope this letter will find you still in this country. Please let me know your home address before you leave the U.S.

There are no special news that I can tell you of the Library. Everything goes on the same way. You will be interested to know that Mrs Harris' book will soon be worked on by the Press, and, therefore, its publication is also not far off.

With best wishes,
Sincerely, X. J. Eudin

P.S. You will notice that I probably misspelled Turkish names. There is no one here to ask for proper spelling!! KJR
