Dear Professor Tuncay,

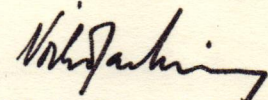

thank you very much for you kind letter containing the sad news that you will not be able to come to Munich this year. It is a shame that a scholar such as you has to undergo harrasment for activities which anyone familiar with the subject would describe as strictly scholarly.

I have immediately written to the Humboldt-Stiftung most warmly supporting your request that the scholarship be postponed to the next academic year.

I wish I could do more for you. Let me at least wish you that the coming trial be not an ordeal and that, ^{you} as you say yourself, will be acquitted.

With warm regards,

Sincerely yours

(Nicholas Lobkowitz)
