

Possible Opening in

TURKISH

at

The University of Texas at Austin

For the Academic Year 1977-1978

The Department of Oriental and African Languages and Literatures of the University of Texas at Austin may have a one-year opening for an assistant professor of Turkish for the academic year 1977-1978. (Appointment beyond 1977-1978 cannot be guaranteed at this time.) Ph.D. required. Knowledge of Arabic highly desirable. Salary open.

The duties consist of teaching primarily lower-division Turkish language courses, and secondarily general culture courses on Turkey.

Please address applications and other relevant correspondence to:

The Chairman
Department of Oriental and African
Languages and Literatures
The University of Texas
Austin, Texas 78712

Karanfil Sok. 39/12
Kızılay, Ankara - Turkey
April 26, 1977

to: The Chairman
Dept. of Oriental and African
Languages and Literatures
The Univ. of Texas

Dear Sir,

I understand that you may have a vacancy in your department which may suit me. Please find my CV enclosed. Though I have little experience in teaching my mother-tongue to foreigners, I am confident that I can do it well.

You may write to the following persons for letters of recommendation about me:

Prof. Dr. Şinasi Tekin, Center for Middle Eastern Studies,
Harvard University, 1737 Cambridge Street
Cambridge, Massachusetts 02138

Prof. Dr. Şerif Mardin, the Dean, Social Sciences Faculty
Boğaziçi Üniversitesi, Bebek, İstanbul

Prof. Seha Meray (the President of the Turkish Language Society)
Siyasal Bilgiler Fakültesi, Cebeçi, Ankara

Prof. Dr. Ioanna Kuçuradı, the Head, Philosophy Dept.
Hacettepe Üniversitesi, Beytepe, Ankara.

Yours truly,

Konu :
Sayı :

Ankara

1977

Milli Kütüphane Genel Müdürlüğü
KOLLEKTEYON VE
BAŞBAKANLIK
1. C.