

7 March 1966

Dear Mete Bey,

I got off on my trip before being able to answer your last letter. Enclosed is one of the articles cited. The others I hope to get eventually + my wife will try to send them on to me for you. Hope they won't arrive too late. Had I known earlier, I could certainly have gotten them to you. The delay is because they were out on loan from the Library of Congress.

About the Die Welt des Islam articles. The vol. 6 is dated 1959-1961 printed at Leiden. The date of printing on back of title page says 1961.

The pages of the other article I forgot to jot down in my rush to get off. If my wife can find I'll send them on later, too.

I can't find the book by M. Hartmann in the Library of Congress catalogue. Maybe we can locate it in Europe. I'm interested too.

I had a letter from Ferket Sureyya, who is most cooperative. I'm now sure my final draft will be sounder + more detailed, thanks to your cooperation no little bit.

Yours,

George Harris

P.S. Don't be deceived by return address. I don't arrive in Ankara until 27 April.